Dedication

To the destruction of prejudice
To the conquest of ignorance
To the quest of knowledge
To the firmer basis of understanding
To the betterment of man

These are goals to which we dedicate the 1959 ERINNERUNGEN.

Introduction

ERINNERUNGEN began as a slender volume recording activities of seven schools. Through the years from 1949 to 1958 it has steadily grown in size and stature, and it has strived to serve a dual purpose. ERINNERUNGEN has assumed the traditional role of a yearbook, recording for posterity the events of each school year, and it has also attempted to point out to its readers the advantages and opportunities with which we, American students living in Europe, are blessed.

In beginning its second decade, ERINNERUNGEN has taken a decisive step forward. Because of the growth in the number of American schools in Europe, this, the eleventh edition, will appear in two volumes. One will include six of the larger schools in Germany, and its companion will be composed of the fourteen smaller schools in Germany and France.

SOUVENIRS, the French word for memories, has been added to the traditional title in German, ERINNERUNGEN, and both words appear in both volumes. The bi-lingual title symbolizes the bond that still exists among the American high schools in Europe, even though our annual has been divided: a bond which unites our backgrounds and interests, our hopes and aspirations and — perhaps most of all — our day-to-day opportunities and adventures as honored guests in the very storehouse of history.

1959 ERINNERUNGEN TABLE OF CONTENTS: BOOK B

What we see we take in,
and finally each building detail or bridge crossing a river or ruined castle, modern opera house, piece of sculpture or church spire comes through to create for us the uniqueness of living and playing and studying in Europe.

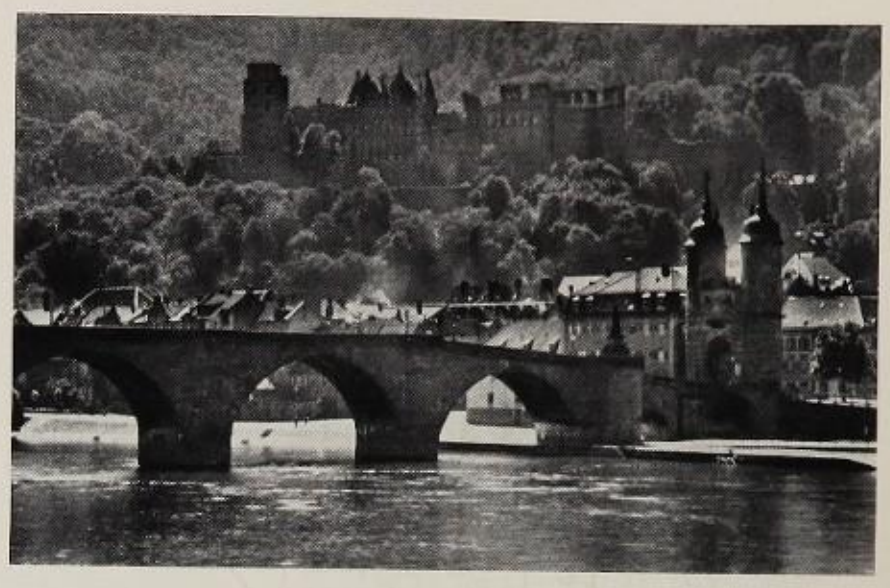
Somehow we become more than an American by name. It is all difficult to label and put a title to — — we'll know later. And then there are the people we meet — — some we meet only in our hearts. But then that is the best way to meet people, isn't it? Sometimes the words hurt too much — — we continue to look and to take in and somehow all this will create what we will be.

FRANKFURT . . 14

And in the ruins of the walls that once surrounded Frankfurt we found this sandstone eagle. Probably carved 500 or 600 years ago. In Europe, a hundred years one way or the other doesn't seem to make too much difference.



HEIDELBERG 94

When the morning sun crawls down the Heidelberg hill, through the castle ruins, across the slate rooftops of the Holy Ghost Church then spreads itself into the Neckar River, we know how anyone who has been in Heidelberg, can lose their hearts here in this Palatinate City.

KAISERSLAUTERN 148

Sometimes the only way we can really see something is to put it down on paper. The ruins of the Hohenecken Schloss have collected the dirt and dust of centuries; yet TIME, which has taken away its walls and towers, has left us its medieval power and charm — for it was not stone which fortified the castle in its days of glory, but the strength and honor of those who made it great.

MANNHEIM 226

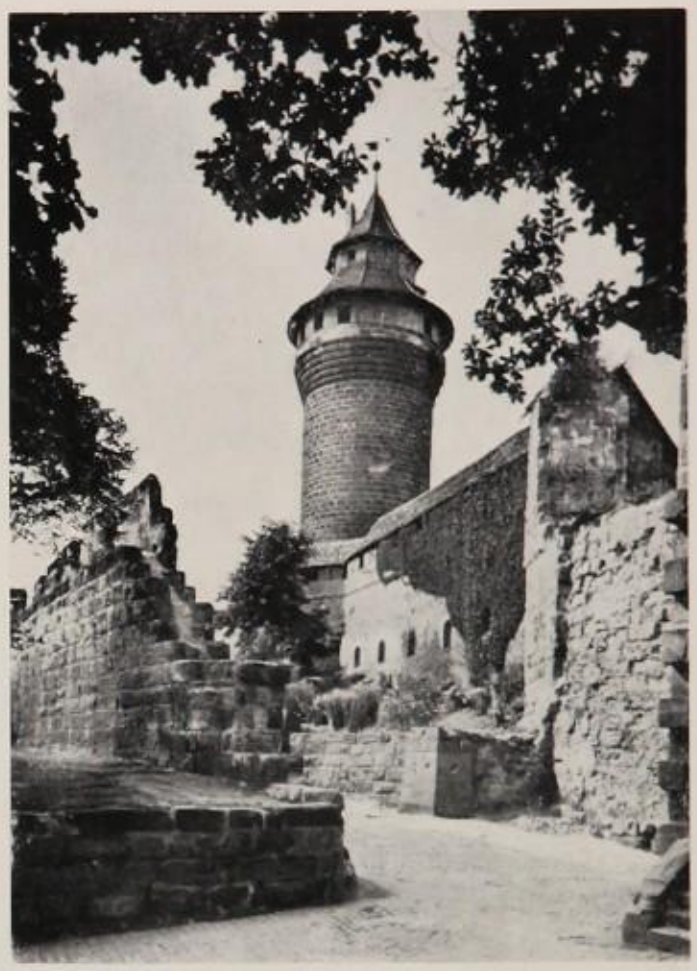
Many of us have watched the new buildings and the new European character, too, being rebuilt; almost each by themselves without help. Here in the New National Theater of Mannheim, that universal spark tying one culture to another, one person to another may be exposed as a contribution to man's continual search for self attainment.

MUNICH . . . 272

A modern Münchener Kindl, symbol of old monastic Munich, arms outstretched before the Frauenkirche poses in youthful angularity sometimes in parades, on beer coasters, postage stamps and in the coats-of-arms of old city families. There is a simple symbolism in those outstretched arms that made us smile when we saw the sculpture.

NÜRNBERG . . . 334

Were towers of the Nürnberg city citadel built to get away from things or to hide in or just to get a better view? The most real value we received from them was the first-hand opportunity to see the original construction and to be set imagining of the reasons why and the places when and the people who.



STUTTGART . . . 388

The many visual contemporary aspects of Europe such as the reinforced concrete and mosaic Liederhalle or concert hall of Stuttgart often made us ask ourselves, "Why did the builders of Europe restore destroyed buildings as they were before destruction rather than to create new forms with the energy and insight that is so obvious in the structures that were created from new vision?" We asked ourselves, because we could find no one else to ask.

ALL HIGH SCHOOL OPPORTUNITIES

This two volume publication of the yearbook containing the stories of seventeen high schools is only one combined expression of our high school students. There are many other cooperative adventures that bring into focus students from all nineteen high schools in Germany, France and Italy.

Along with the high school music festivals, athletic tournaments, science fairs, leadership programs and yearbook conferences there are both regional and school-wide art and craft exhibitions, student exchanges with host nation schools as well as many other unique activities completing a wide variety of enriching experiences. These offerings are provided to create a more individual participation in the educational processes while living in the European environment.

1959 ALL USAREUR SCIENCE FAIR director, Richard M. Harbeck, on the left speaks with Miss Eddie Stone and Merle Simpson, FIRST AWARD winners from the Heidelberg High School and their teacher, Mr. John E. Novinsky. More than 100 students from USAREUR schools in Germany, France and Italy, gathered at Heidelberg High School, 11-14 March, 1959, to display their prize-winning science fair projects. These projects were the best from more than seventy local school science exhibits and five area science fairs. The USAREUR Science Fair included boys and girls from grades seven through twelve, and every major area of science was represented. The First Award winners, Eddie and Merle, were sent, expenses paid, with the Fair Director, Mr. Harbeck, to the National Science Fair in Hartford, Connecticut, early in May.

The USAREUR Science Fair program is one means of stimulating interest in mathematics and science in our schools. These subjects are an essential part of the basic curricula at all grade levels and provide for the development of fundamental skills in computation and scientific thinking.

THE TEACHERS OF FOREIGN LANGUAGES in the USAREUR Dependents' Schools accept partial responsibility for the success of the larger American mission in Europe by endeavoring to establish good host nation relations at the grass roots level. They see in this not only an opportunity for service to their own country, but a broadening experience for the children as well.

From the first grade on pupils are taught the language of the host nation and field trips are made to museums, industrial establishments and foreign schools to afford a valuable insight into another culture. The teachers of Foreign Language are almost one hundred per cent nationals of the nation in which the school is located whether it be in France, Germany or Italy.

The group of students above are at the Kaiserslautern American High School. The group is composed of the regularly enrolled American students and a number of visiting students from the German Gymnasium in Kaiserslautern. Such visits provide a first-hand experience in international understanding.

AUSTRIAN AND AMERICAN STUDENTS of all ages met with Herr Hoeflmaier, music teacher of Oberndorf, Austria, at Oberndorf during the Christmas season to sing the original two part arrangement of SILENT NIGHT that Franz Gruber had created for the first Christmas performance in the same little village December 24th, 1818. As with the original performance by Gruber, a guitar accompaniment (provided this year by Herr Hoeflmaier) completed the seasonal character of this simple, unique musical experience in the Silent Night Chapel. The American students came from the area of Berchtesgaden, Germany: an area of perfect complement to any Christmas festivity. The father of one of the children had gone with the students and Dr. Krone, Music Specialist, and as Santa Claus, distributed candy and apples to the Austrian students as gifts from the American students. This was the first appearance of Santa Claus in the Silent Night Chapel, thus providing the Austrian students an unique experience of their own.

AT THE FIRST INTERNATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL BASKET BALL TOURNAMENT held at the Mannheim High School, the Mannheim basketball team represented the American high schools. Other countries represented at the Tournament were Austria, Germany, Belgium and the Netherlands. Belgium won the first place championship. Pictured above, John Howard, captain of the Mannheim High School team, accepts the Sportsmanship Trophy from the Sports Mayor of the City of Mannheim, Ferdinand Kramers.

AN ARTICLE APPEARING IN THE "ANZEIGER", newspaper of Bad Godesberg, Germany, had this to say about the student art exhibition held at the Bad Godesberg School: "In comparison to German school exhibitions, it may be stated that the projects on display showed more fantasy, broader poetic tendencies and wider international character, while our German schools tend towards technical perfection and varied type of work."
Mrs. David K. E. Bruce, wife of the American Ambassador to Germany, is pictured above placing a first prize award on a picture printed by Jan Kassap. Würzburg, Nürnberg and Frankfurt High Schools also arranged student art and crafts exhibitions on an international scale with work from host nation schools in their particular area of Europe.

TO THE 1959 HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATE

Congratulations to the 1959 graduates of the high schools of the United States Army, Europe. All in this command share in the pride with which you, your families, and your teachers view your very fine achievements.

Graduation from high school is a time for happy celebration. It is also a time for you, as young adult Americans, to give sober thought to your future and to the future of your country. Your future will depend upon that of America, but in the final analysis the success of both is entirely dependent upon you, because you are the America of tomorrow. If you are to continue to enjoy your birthright of peace, freedom, and opportunity, it is necessary that you take your place among other adult citizens in building an even greater and stronger United States of America, and in encouraging and helping the other countries of the free world.

What can you as young citizens do to help preserve our American way of life? Three very important things come to my mind:

First, do not be satisfied with your present education, although it is the best high school education afforded by modern teaching methods. Constantly seek more knowledge, whether through college or other means. Your country will profit and you will be rewarded by an even greater sense of achievement.

Second, take advantage of your residence in Europe to learn all you can about the governments, customs, cultures, and motivations of other peoples. Today's world is indeed a small one and knowledge of the ways of other countries is necessary for you to discharge intelligently your responsibilities as a citizen.

Third, and most important of all, never lose sight of the principles of American democracy which you have learned at home and in school. With a young generation living by these principles, there can be no question but that it and our country will continue to prosper in freedom.
Sincere best wishes for your future success and happiness.

THE UNITED STATES ARMY DEPENDENTS' SCHOOLS IN EUROPE

On May 4, 1946 the Army established its dependents' school program in Europe. At that time, 3,087 pupils were enrolled in kindergartens, elementary and secondary schools. This year enrollments grew to a total of 54,069 in grades kindergarten through 12, as of 19 December 1958. Over 2,200 Americans and 350 local nationals were employed to staff the 117 schools operated in Germany, France, Italy, and Ethiopia.

The US Army Dependents' Education Group is the operating agency for the Army schools in Europe. The school headquarters is located in Karlsruhe, Germany. A civilian director administers the program assisted by a staff of educational specialists and military personnel. The schools are divided into six regional areas each under the general supervision of a superintendent. The 19 high schools are afforded accreditation by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. An inspection of the schools is made regularly to ensure that high standards are maintained. Schools are equipped with modern teaching aids and textbooks. A wide range of curriculum as offerings is provided to meet the needs of individual students. This yearbook is one illustration of the extra-curricular opportunities offered.

Who can predict the end of a dream?
Who can chart a rainbow?
To whom is the pattern of birdsong revealed?
Whose feet know the paths of tomorrow?
What are the signs presaging a storm?
What are the omens of darkness ahead?
What whispers betoken an oncoming gloom,
Or the glimmer of brightness ascending?

To a few men are presented
The key to the riddle,
The heart of the mystery,
The way through the wilderness.

To the others is given only
A beginning
And the promise of an ending,
A path beneath their feet, and
The arch of courage that connects
Beginning and promised ending.

These others tread their separate, winding paths,
Seeking the key, the heart, the way.
Face to the sky,
Ear to the wind,
The shades of tomorrow's history
Seek their separate destinies.

Many the pits that line the paths,
Many the false roads, intertwined.
The way is uncertain and vision is dim,
And truth and dreams play counterpoint:
Things seen and scenes imagined,
Whispers murmured on the winds,
Hollow laughter through the trees,
Mists half-hiding, half-disclosing,
False impressions blinding reason,
Showing blessings, obscuring curses,
Luring the feet on the uncertain paths,
Drowning the Future in promising Present,
Tempting the eye with the treasures of Now.

The seekers see goals in nebulous shrouds.
Ahead, horizonward they direct their eyes — — —
On to the glowing heights,
On through the shimmering curtain
Obscuring the unborn deeds of future time,
The wraiths of future lives.
Those who endure, those who persist
Come to the ending at last, at last.

Dream revealed,
Rainbow brightened,
Birdsong floating on perfect notes,
They watch the shrouds fall smoothly away,
Fulfilling the promise of time.

From all the walls
Fences,
Strongholds,
Barricades,
In all the towns and villages
Where Man manifests
His civilization,
Emanates an essence
Of Time-Past,
A living continuity
Of knowledge and wisdom.

From all these walls
Let me pry loose
The great ideas,
The noble sacrifices,
Offered up on the altar
Of Man's immortality
By fine and gentle man
Since Time began.

Progress frowns on labyrinths of walls,
And seeks to tear them out to pave its way;
Yet one who's met the challenge of his calls,
In wall's defense, might turn and say:
I stumbled much and would have fallen down,
But outflung hands clung to those ancient stones
So I could gain the top to look around
And see if I could climb along alone.
Those walls that sense and guide our groping hands
Can serve to quicken thirst in new-found ken,
Which leads to other heights on which to stand,
And see the wall that stretches on, no end.
Through blunder, don't obliterate their might,
But seek to pry them loose to let in light.

Some walls we build — of fear, of hate, of pride —
Can shut men out and keep us locked inside;
Each stone of envy, prejudice, and greed
Sets us apart from fellow men in need.
We have erected them, and only we
Can break them down and thus set all men free;
These walls must be destroyed, and in their place
Walls built to unify the human race.
Replace the worthless rubble of the years,
Compassionately viewing human tears,
And build a wall of charity and light,
One founded, not in error, but in right.
By doing good to all, a wall we find
Surrounding, not dividing, all mankind.

I have built a wall about myself
Difficult to pierce,
Impossible to breach.
I did not start it,
But I have added.
It is a strong wall,
Bound with a mortar of hate.

My wall began with the first cruelty
Of another child to me.
(Have you ever brushed
Hard against a wall,
And brushing, ripped your skin?)
Ripped by the wall of every child,
So did I become a mass of scars,
And so I built
My Wall.

I built at first with smaller stones,
The small taunts flung,
And unkindnesses done,
That childhood knows.
It's only play, one is aware of this,
And so you join-and joining, build.
But then my stones got large, and black;
Two edged-with the cutting point without
And the pang of conscience, deep within,
For the conscience is there
Protesting loud.
But these stones cut deep in me
Before I placed them
Facing out.
(One worries not about supplies;
There is no dearth of stones,
But rather a thousand mates, at hand
For every one
In every wall.)

All around me I see men
Who have let their walls build up.
In some it is only ignorance
In others will.
These are the men I pity,
These are the men I fear:
They have let their walls get above their heads
And cannot see out.
They see only the wall,
A blindness worse than seeing not at all.

My wall is high and builds on, higher,
But I hammer hard to knock it down.
Sometimes I think
Sometimes I only hope
That I am breaking even.
I fight
To keep my head above the wall.

I like to stop before an old, old wall,
And look into its jumbled face of stone
To see if I can find the reasons for
Its structure and the styling of its form.
A wall contains within its deep recess
The hidden brick and mortar of its start;
This core, if seen, perhaps could lead us to
A clearer understanding of our part.

Around the garden lead the walls;
They take me where I want to go
And tell me tales of yesteryear —
Of stories I have longed to know.

If I should seek for days and days
I might learn all there is to know,
For they have stood through time itself,
And witnessed mankind's joy and woe.

These old walls of ages past
Towers high and arches vast
Ivy covered
Crumbled, fallen
Echoing questions often asked.

Ruins and rubble where walls have stood
Columns yellowed
Twisted, broken
But always remaining, as memories would.

The Frankfurt Eagles rolled up eight straight wins to cop the 1958 Class A football championship. The Eagles held their opponents scoreless in five of the games, which gave their powerful offense strong support. This was Frankfurt's first undefeated season and also its first football championship. After belting Munich, 20-0, in the home opener, Frankfurt traveled to Stuttgart for a 33-0 victory. Mike MacNaughton and Tom Sharp each scored three touchdowns in these contests combined. Kaiserslautern's Raiders gave the mighty Eagles a scare before Sharp ran 74 yards to tie the game at 19-19.

Friberg rebounds for Frankfurt.

BASKETBALL

The Frankfurt basketball team was dwarfed by most of the opposing teams, but the Eagles still came out with a 2-4 record in their first six games.

The Eagles lost to Nurnberg in the opening game by a score of 73-38 in the only lop-sided score of the season. The new coach, Mr. Ausra, not only lost his first game but his appendix as well.

This wasn't a preview of things to come, as the Eagles barely lost a thriller to Kaiserslautern, 50-47. Eric Friberg dumped in 23 points in the contest.

Friberg's 21 points again paced the Eagles to a 44-40 victory over Munich as Frankfurt moved into the win column.

Stuttgart then edged Frankfurt, 43-38, but Roosevelt Hill scored 21 points in his first varsity game.

The highlight of the young season was a 51-41 thumping of previously unbeaten Heidelberg. Friberg, Hill, and MacNaughton led the Eagles in this impressive victory.

Frankfurt was defeated by Wiesbaden, 44-30, as Hill again led the scoring with 19 points.

Hill's 18 point average and Friberg's 13 point average have served notice to the rest of the league that Frankfurt is gunning for a second-half comeback.

The Frankfurt Junior Varsity, paced by Bill Donaldson's 49 points, rolled up a 4-2 record in league play. The little Eagles lost only to Kaiserslautern and Wiesbaden, despite the fact that Hill and Ellington, two of their highest scorers, were moved up to the varsity early in the season.

USAREUR TRACK CHAMPIONS

The Frankfurt track team won the USAREUR high school championship in the finals held in Nurnberg in spring 1958. Many of the members of the championship team were back this year.

Tim Diltz and Larry Richardson set new USAREUR records in the mile and pole-vault, respectively, and the 800-meter relay team - - Wright, Tiller, Dahne, and Mac Naughton - - and the 1600-meter relay team - - Diltz, Emerick, Tiller, and Wright - - walked off with first places.

Frankfurt scored 36 points, to finish ahead of second-place Stuttgart by nine points.

Girls' PE class takes warm-up exercises.

Since there are no interscholastic sports for girls, the Girls' Athletic Association sponsors activities once a week so the girls can compete in volleyball, basketball, and softball. The G.A.A. also sponsors play days during the year for schools all over USAREUR.

Besides the interscholastic sports, in which Frankfurt has shown its prestige for many years, the boys' physical education program gives all a chance to engage in many sports. Football, basketball, and track form only a small part of their program.
Some of the boys have formed a tumbling team which meets after school and works out in the gym.

The Council in discussion at a regular meeting

The year 1959 was a landmark in the development of student government at FHS. A new system of representation was initiated, consisting of the traditional four officers, plus senators elected at large from the student body and two representatives from each class.

Among the many projects undertaken by this concentrated legislative body were a school calendar showing the coming month's activities, a winter ball, and a monitor system. The council also bought Christmas trees for the school lobbies, gold footballs for the championship team, and gold megaphones for the cheerleaders. Christmas cards were sent to the student councils of other USAREUR schools and a monthly newsletter was circulated among the various student councils to inform each about the other schools' activities and to share new ideas for the improvement of student government.

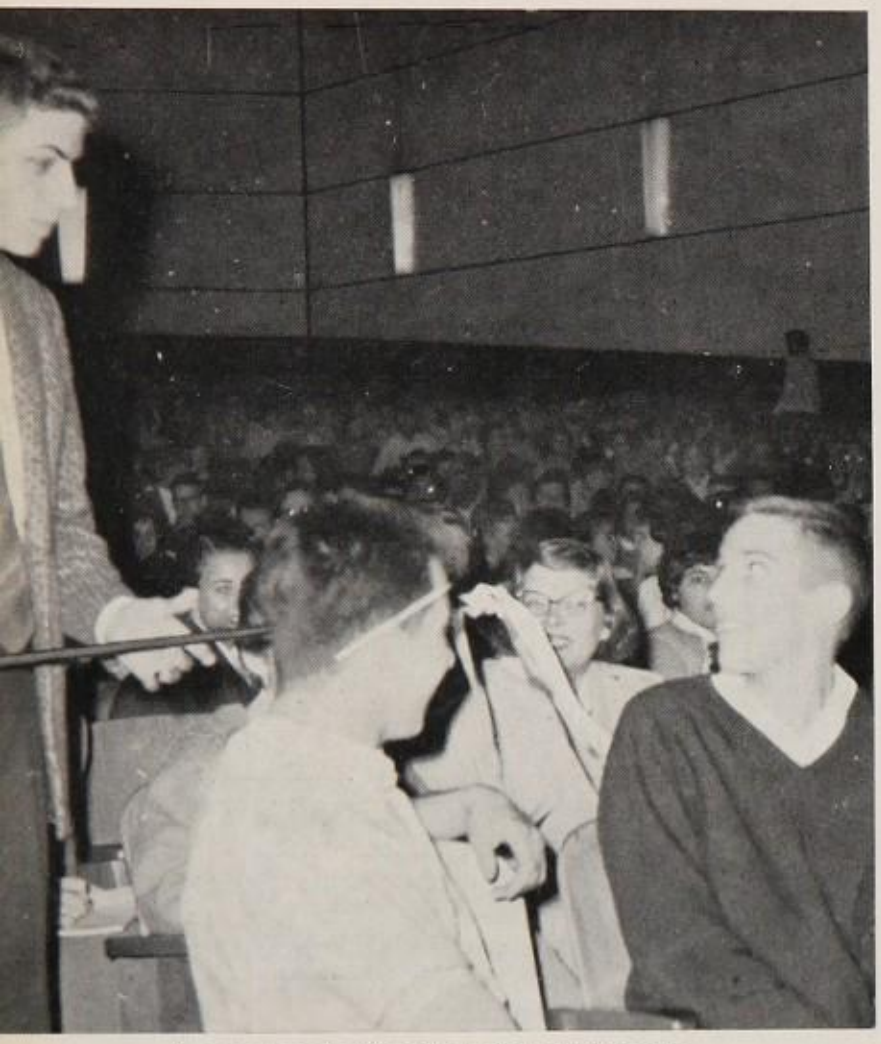
NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY



A new member is selected at the Honor Society "tapping" assembly.

Frankfurt's 1959 chapter of the National Honor Society was one of the largest and most active in this school's history. Besides the two yearly induction ceremonies, the chapter sponsored a Thanksgiving assembly, a leadership conference, and a college night. In accordance with its school-improvement drive, the chapter presented a series of cultural assemblies, including the Seventh Army Symphony, the Third Division Chorus, a piano concert, and a presentation by a group from the Frankfurt Playhouse. These activities illustrate the club's emphasis on service, one of its major goals, and on the development of character, leadership, and scholarship in its members and in the school.

New members are formally received into the society at the candlelight ceremony.

After selecting a theme on which to base art and literary work, the annual staff set to work. Hours spent in scheduling pictures, cataloguing names, and endless checking finally produced the finished "dummy". The year's climax occured at the February yearbook conference, when student and faculty delegates selected the Dedication written by Frankfurt's 1959 Editor and the Preface written by Frankfurt's 1958 Editor, Pat Pollock, from all the schools' entries to introduce 1959's Erinnerungen.

GRADUATION ANNOUNCEMENT

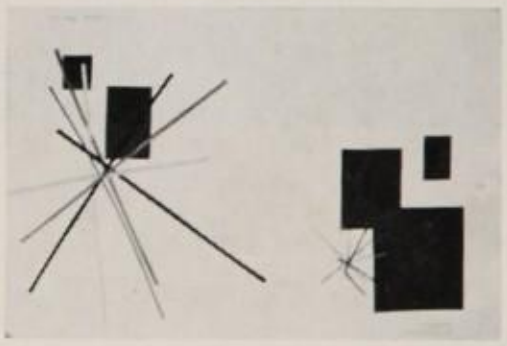
MARCH MADNESS

J. dexheimer

The opening of the year 1958-59 at Frankfurt High School is symbolized in the opening of the newest additions to the school campus. Here, Mr. Crowder, principal, receives the keys on opening day.

"Silver City": four gleaming quonset huts, each containing two classrooms. During the break students rush to their next classes in the main building.

Students search the bulletin boards for homeroom listings, just part of the inevitable confusion of opening day.



The NHS sock-hop in the gym helps to get everyone acquainted early in the year; quite a job in a school of Frankfurt's size.

The cry is "Burn Wiesbaden" as a Warrior effigy flames at the annual fall bonfire-pep rally for the Homecoming game.

And supporting the spirit generated at the bonfire, the parents as honored guests watch the Eagles triumph over Wiesbaden in the game of the season.

An annual staff will do almost anything to sell the book-even on the football field!

The Pep Band helped to stimulate school spirit at pep rallies, held before almost every game.

The students pack the gym for a pep rally under the direction of the cheerleaders and the student-led pep band.

The seniors' Sadie Hawkins dance, an annual affair, highlights Frankfurt's fall social season. Germany has its Fasching, but it never saw anything quite like this before.

And when Fasching actually came, Frankfurt's band had a unique experience. Roundly applauded by mobs of German people lining the streets, they marched in Frankfurt's gigantic, festive Carnival Parade, and again a day later in Heddernheim.

The Student Council president is the moderator of assemblies, held this year at the Frankfurt post theater because of the exceptionally large student enrollment at FHS this year. Here he introduces the director of the 3rd Armored Division Band at the Thanksgiving Assembly.

The story of the nativity is the theme of the Christmas assembly, presented this year by the combined drama and speech groups and the music department.

The Melloteens obviously enjoy their role providing music for many of our assemblies.

Deep thought and good planning on the part of the speech and drama director help to produce . . . .

Assemblies provide not only enjoyment for all, but also recognition for worthy achievement.

Here the president of the NHS administers the pledge to newly elected members of the group at the annual fall induction ceremony.

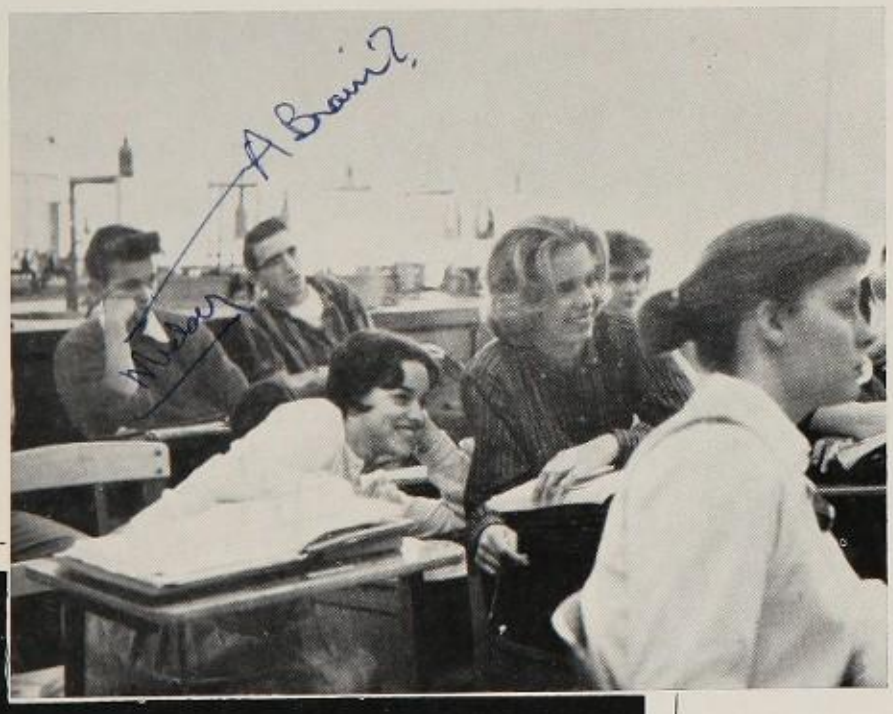
. . . . attention-holding assemblies which command concentration like that exhibited by this audience.

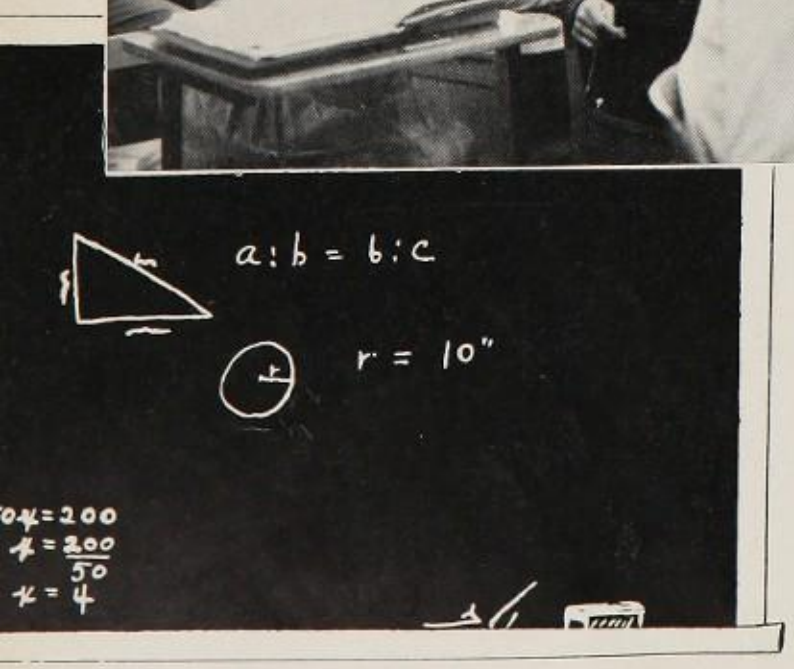
Lots of luck + keep up the good throwing in Track
Best Wishes Jim Hughes

In many a lengthy lecture, Mr. Westbrook gives his pupils the finer points of algebra and higher math.

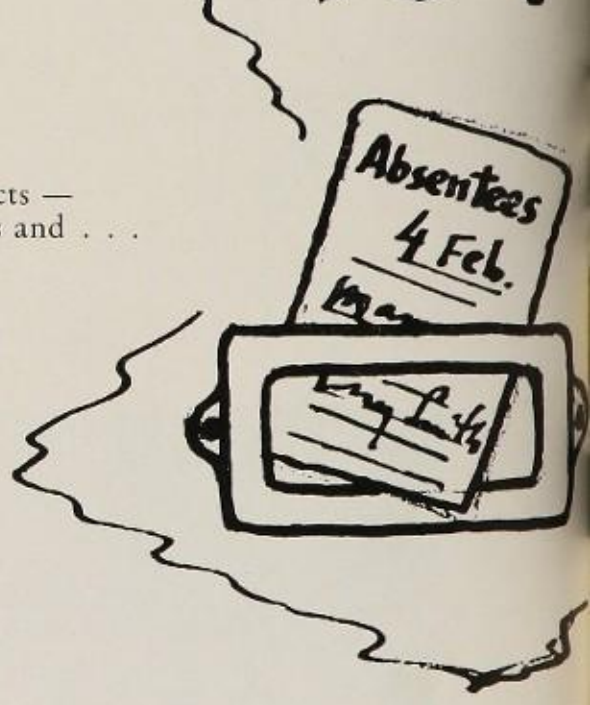
But school life consists of much more than honor assemblies and special programs: daily classes are the basic substance of school life.

. . . And when a lecture is missed, Mr. Barlow, vice principal, usually knows why!



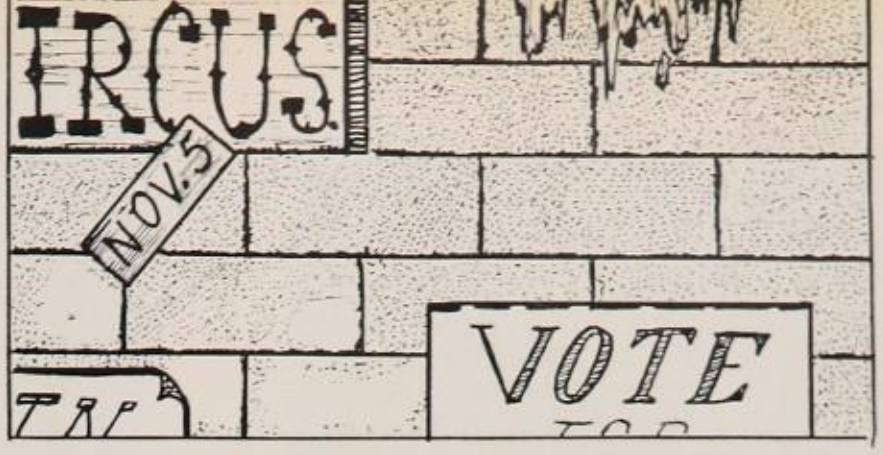


Every class has two aspects — the interesting discussions and . . .

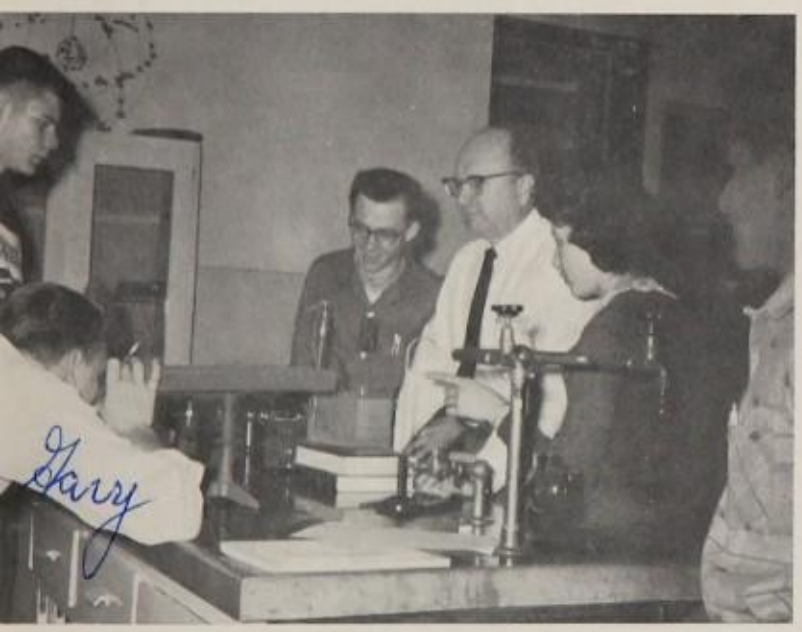


. . . the ordeal of the tests that inevitably follow.

Here Mr. Liston, senior career planning teacher and later freshman counselor, advises a student on the basis of one of the many tests administered by the guidance department.



Of all the schools in USAREUR, Frankfurt offers the only course in Russian. The industrious few taking this class even have to learn a completely new alphabet!



Although special classes have their appeal, the challenge of lab work and similar activities goes on five days a week.

Nevertheless, classes sometimes just seem to miss the mark.

Time doesn't stand still, at Frankfurt as well as anywhere else, and by February four new teachers and two new secretaries had joined the faculty.

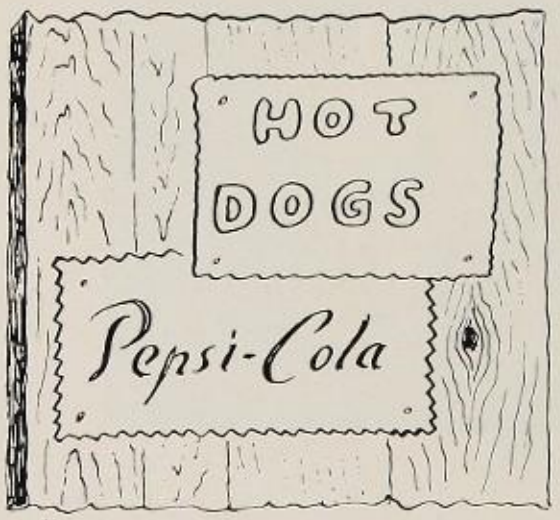
Among all his other activities, a teacher seeks time to know his students personally. Mr. Hemman here expounds on the motto "Think for yourself; the teacher might be wrong".

For some teachers, being a class sponsor is a primary source of extra-curricular amusement. Above, Mr. Wilber, the "continental chemist", guards the junior refreshment stand, a major source of revenue for this year's prom.

Somewhat more elegant than hot dogs is the Christmas tea at which the home-making classes are hostesses to faculty members.

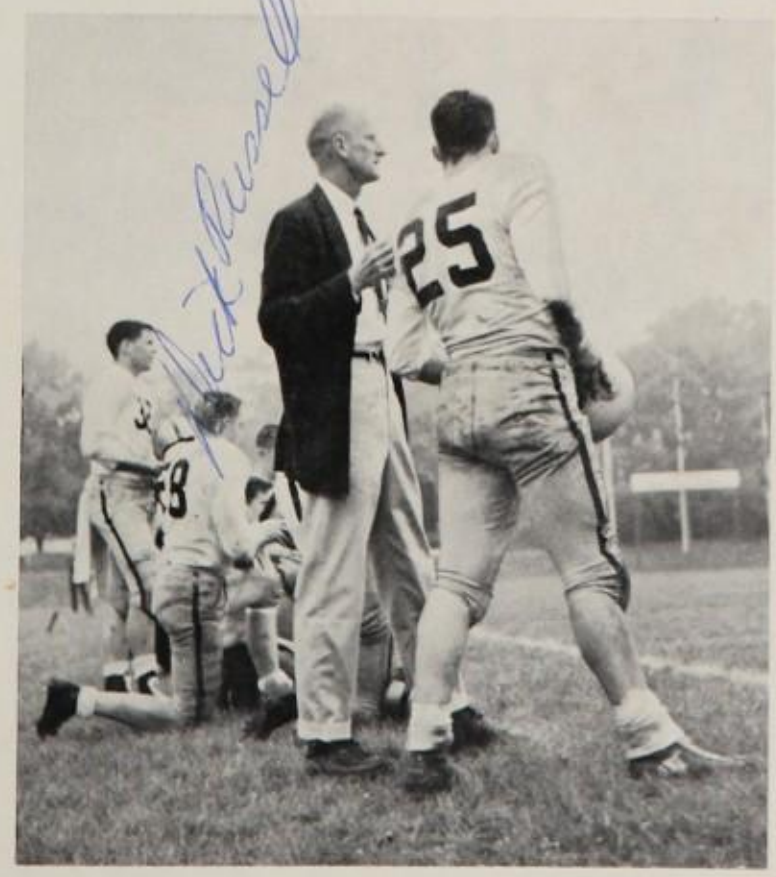


And speaking of food, the cafeteria food is really good this year, isn't it? Also, Frankfurt has probably the most attractive cafeteria in USAREUR, thanks to Sgt. Haley.

The school's having a nurse is made possible only through PTA funds. Mrs. Burke is always a busy person, but nothing compares with the rush at mid-term exam time! Nevertheless, make-up exams are mandatory.

Courses in first aid, driver training, and freshman goals alternated this year with physical education classes. Above, two sophomores practice emergency accident treatment.

The staff of the school newspaper, the Eagles Echo, periodically spends hours in the mimeograph room putting out editions. This year three professionally printed editions supplemented the usual mimeographed editions.



After the football season, FHS's newsmaking championship football team had a banquet to finish off its victorious season and to bid its coach, Mr. Kirchner, "farewell" before he left for the States.

THE SOCIAL SEASON

Candidates for Queen of the Homecoming Ball and their dates await the crowning of the queen by Mr. Crowder.

Chuck Damman, senior, reigns as King Winter at the Student Council sponsored Winter Ball.

Mike Emerick, president of the senior class, "emcees" at the Winter Ball, dubbed "Slush Ball" due to weather conditions. Here he introduces Mr. Buxkemper, who crowned the king.

To us Americans who are able, here in Europe, to learn and experience so many things new to us, walls can signify tradition — the tradition of centuries of civilization and culture, preceding even the founding of our own country. These are the walls we pry loose in order to learn, to appreciate, and to grow. These are the golden walls, and this is part of the value of our European experience.

Yet walls symbolize not only the storing of old treasures. Walls also block and obstruct; they separate, they hinder. We Americans here, particularly we students, have an opportunity to contribute to the European scene some of the values of our own, newer culture. America emphasizes the value of relationships, of sharing, of close association, of free give and take. Europe for centuries has been hampered by walls of prejudice and barriers of hate resulting from repeated wars and misunderstandings. Can we not help, perhaps, to pry loose, to tear down these divisive elements and then aid in replacing them with bonds of greater understanding for the common needs — and hopes — of men? Is this not also part of our challenge?

Varied walls have confronted us with their challenges; we have pried at some, we have scaled others, and we have even surmounted a few. So as we complete our high school education here in Europe and turn to assume our new roles — in jobs, in college, in life — may we carry to them, as a result of our combined European experience and American education, a fresher and more dedicated sense of responsibility. May we be ever open and receptive to those things that are new, to those things that have value proven by time, and to the general worth of excellence.

May we ever face difficulty and misunderstanding, wherever we find them, with the dedicated courage to attack and obliterate them. Let us work toward the lessening of those things that divide us. Let us never tolerate that which blocks our need to understand, to help, and to love one another.

Let every one of us appreciate and crusade.

MEMORIES OF HEIDELBERG

"Ich hab' mein Herz in Heidelberg verloren . . ."

For over a century, this familiar German march has echoed the sentiments of those who have either lived in, or visited Heidelberg, a city which has meant many things to many people.

To those of us at Heidelberg High School, it has meant an education, in the human aspects of life as well as in the scientific. It has also been a rich experience in international living, for Heidelberg is a gathering place for students from all over the world.

What will we remember about Heidelberg? The Schloss, with its medieval architecture, its parapets and gargoyles; the old bridge which was made for oxcarts but not automobiles; or the city gate, which stand aloof and quiescent as time moves all around it - - all these are integral parts of the city's rich heritage. Yet, these are only the frontal of the city's features; our memories will not simply be mental pictures of the city's landmarks, rather they will be living associations - - what we did, what we thought, whom we met.

We will never forget when we too, lost our hearts in Heidelberg.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Our memories of Student Council are proud ones, filled with a sense of accomplishment. As the main student organization, we felt that we achieved the utmost. Miss Clauson, our sponsor, and Lucy Ranck, our president, helped and guided us all year.

From the start of the basketball season our work was cut out for us. We truly feel that our finest tribute came at Christmas time, from the sparkling eyes of the refugee children.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

To be in the society which admits only those excelling in Scholarship, Character, Service, and Leadership is a national honor. The increasing membership proudly reflects the fact that Heidelberg students are striving for and achieving higher goals than ever before attempted.

Through the experience and knowledge gained by being in the National Honor Society, under the direction of Miss Frazer members are better prepared to take their place as leaders in a growing society.

The memories of the newspaper club are rich and plentiful. We remember the superior staff and its many helpful ideas. Not only have we made a newspaper that we can be proud of, but we have made a beginning in shaping our goals and ideals.

Our memories will always include Miss Kay, whose guidance and sympathy have helped us so much.

This has been a memorable year, not only for the present, but also for the future.

Miss Kay assists her staff.

ANNUAL

Joan Mudgett

Mickie McGormic

Working on the Annual this year has provided the staff, with a store of memories which will last us for the rest of our lives.

The cooperation, the deadlines, the extra-hard work of a few, Mr. Traut's and Miss Fowlkes's bringing us out of the semi-confusion, and the final rush will be remembered for decades to come.

But most of all we'll remember the satisfaction and triumph we experienced when we saw our efforts blossom into this year's Erinnerungen.

SENIORS

What is the value of a memory? We can smile nostalgically as we advance toward all that life has in store for us; but we do not propose to shove our memories into the background, for they are the keys, the stepping stones to a full and radiant future.

As we reminiscence about our high school careers, we recall the bewildering Freshmen year, when we gradually began participating in the clubs and activities, devoting time and contributing talent to both. The Sophomore year was highlighted by our Valentine's dance and our new-found feeling of accomplishment. As Juniors we reveled in our new rank as upperclassmen, and in the spring we sponsored the Prom.

Finally, as we reached the exalted position of Seniors, we became conscious of the responsibilities and privileges this entailed, sometimes by virture of prodding from our sponsor, Miss Fowlkes.

Now, as we look back, we can see that these have been four years of profit and enjoyment.

JUNIORS

We are proud to be the members of the 1959 Junior Class. As well as trying to uphold the standards set by the juniors of '58, we are attempting to attain our own goals and memories to be left to the next junior class.

Among our more vivid memories are the football concessions, the Autumn Leaves Dance . . . . the Prom will be the most vivid of our memories for a long time to come.

SOPHOMORES

As we end our second year of high school, the sophomore class has many memories that will last forever.

With the help of our sponsor, Mr. Stern, and our class officiers, we sponsored a fabulous Valentine Dance; many of our boys participated in the athletic events, and we are represented by three cheerleaders who helped stimulate the Heidelberg spirit.

All of this will cause our class to be long remembered.

FRESHMEN

The first year at high school is a time of transformation, a time when the child begins to change to an adult. In doing this he acquires many memories, and all the pleasant things, including our sponsor Mrs. Breckoff, we remember about our first year at Heidelberg High prove to us that we are not exceptions.

Freshmen help paint signs.

CHOIR

The choir, under Mr. Sanderson's direction, has given Heidelberg High many fine memories ranging from Barber Shop Quartet numbers to the rousing Hallelujah Chorus from Handel's Messiah.

We will recall the fine solo voices, the perfect Amen, the joy of the old Christmas Carols, the respectful hush of a prayer song, and the pulse of the spiritual wherever you go.

Band at the Augsburg game

There's music in the air! The Heidelberg High School Band, under the able guidance of Miss Carol Lentz, our new band director, led the school in many songs during pep assenblies, football games, and basketball games. The players assisted in a number of school programs and ended a most successful year by attending the music festival in Karlsruhe and Nürnberg.

DRAMA CLUB

The Drama Club of Heidelberg will always be implanted firmly in our memory, perhaps because of Mr. Iole's laudable direction.

The club has made such holidays as Thanksgiving and Christmas ones not soon to be forgotten. The members worked on one act plays under student directors, gaining experience for the grand finale. The spring production was a great success.

Members of Heidelberg's Drama Club of 1958—1959 look forward to their future dramatic endeavors.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club has contributed greatly to the many memories of its members. We are in a unique setting in which we can acquire the vast knowledge of a science. We have been inspired by the memory of great scientists like Bunsen, who lived in Heidelberg.

In the vast stores of our memories, we add the memories of the USAREUR Science Fair, which we sponsored under the sponsorship of Mr. Novinsky. We will long remember the escapades in the Science Club.

Mr. Novinsky makes a point.

ARTS AND CRAFTS

This year's art club members are experiencing various media of art. They are able to participate either in craftwork or artwork. The information they learn and the memories they acquire will become a useful part of their lives and will make them more aware of life's finer things.

As the opening of the 1958 football season drew nearer, Coach Venne worked hard trying to mold a very "green" group of boys into a winning football team. The first two games were not encouraging, but as the season progressed the Heidelberg Lions showed their true colors, winding up the season with a 3-3 record. We have Coach Venne to thank for his praise-worthy job of coaching.

Individuals on the team also added to the store of memories. Eddie Peck, our captain, Randy Loftin, and Mark Slovacek were chosen for the All Star USAREUR team.

Coach Green

When basketball practice began, the outlook was dark for Heidelberg. After several weeks of practice with the coach, Mr. Green, a well-balanced team of good shooters and ball-handlers emerged, helping the darkness to recede.

Our Lions journeyed to Kaiserslautern for their first tilt and returned victorious, with the final score 38-32. Next the team played host to Munich, turning back the visitors in a thrilling game 34-32. The following contest saw the Lions win their third game in a row by defeating Wiesbaden, 45-26. The fourth game was played with Mannheim, who fell to a score of 55-29. Our mighty Lions then traveled to Frankfurt, where they lost in an upset, 51-41. They soon retaliated, though, with a 44-40 victory over Kaiserslautern.

BARBAROSSA

Hand in hand the lovers walked
On Rotenberg, far from Home,
Until at last they reached the place
Where Redbeard used to roam.

They sat upon an old brown log
The while the boy did tell
The legend of Barbarossa *,
The king that here did dwell.

From youth he was a leader.
The people looked to him,
And after he united them
They proudly made him king.

This great task done, the battle won,
Dissatisfied yet was he
And set he out with sword in hand
Seeking victory.

The Crusade over, peace was won,
He led his army home
And while they crossed a little stream
His horse did break a bone.

The night was dark, the current swift,
All swept beneath the blue,
And where the Redbeard warrior went,
That nobody knew.

"They say he sleeps beneath this hill,"
The lover tells her true.
"Here he sleeps with his army near,
With elves his errands to do."

"He sleeps in slumber like a child.
His great red beard is flowing;
They say it enters a table of stone
And through it keeps on growing."

"Each hundred years the elf awakes
And for ravens peers about;
If they circle this mountain he'll return
And waken his lord with a shout."

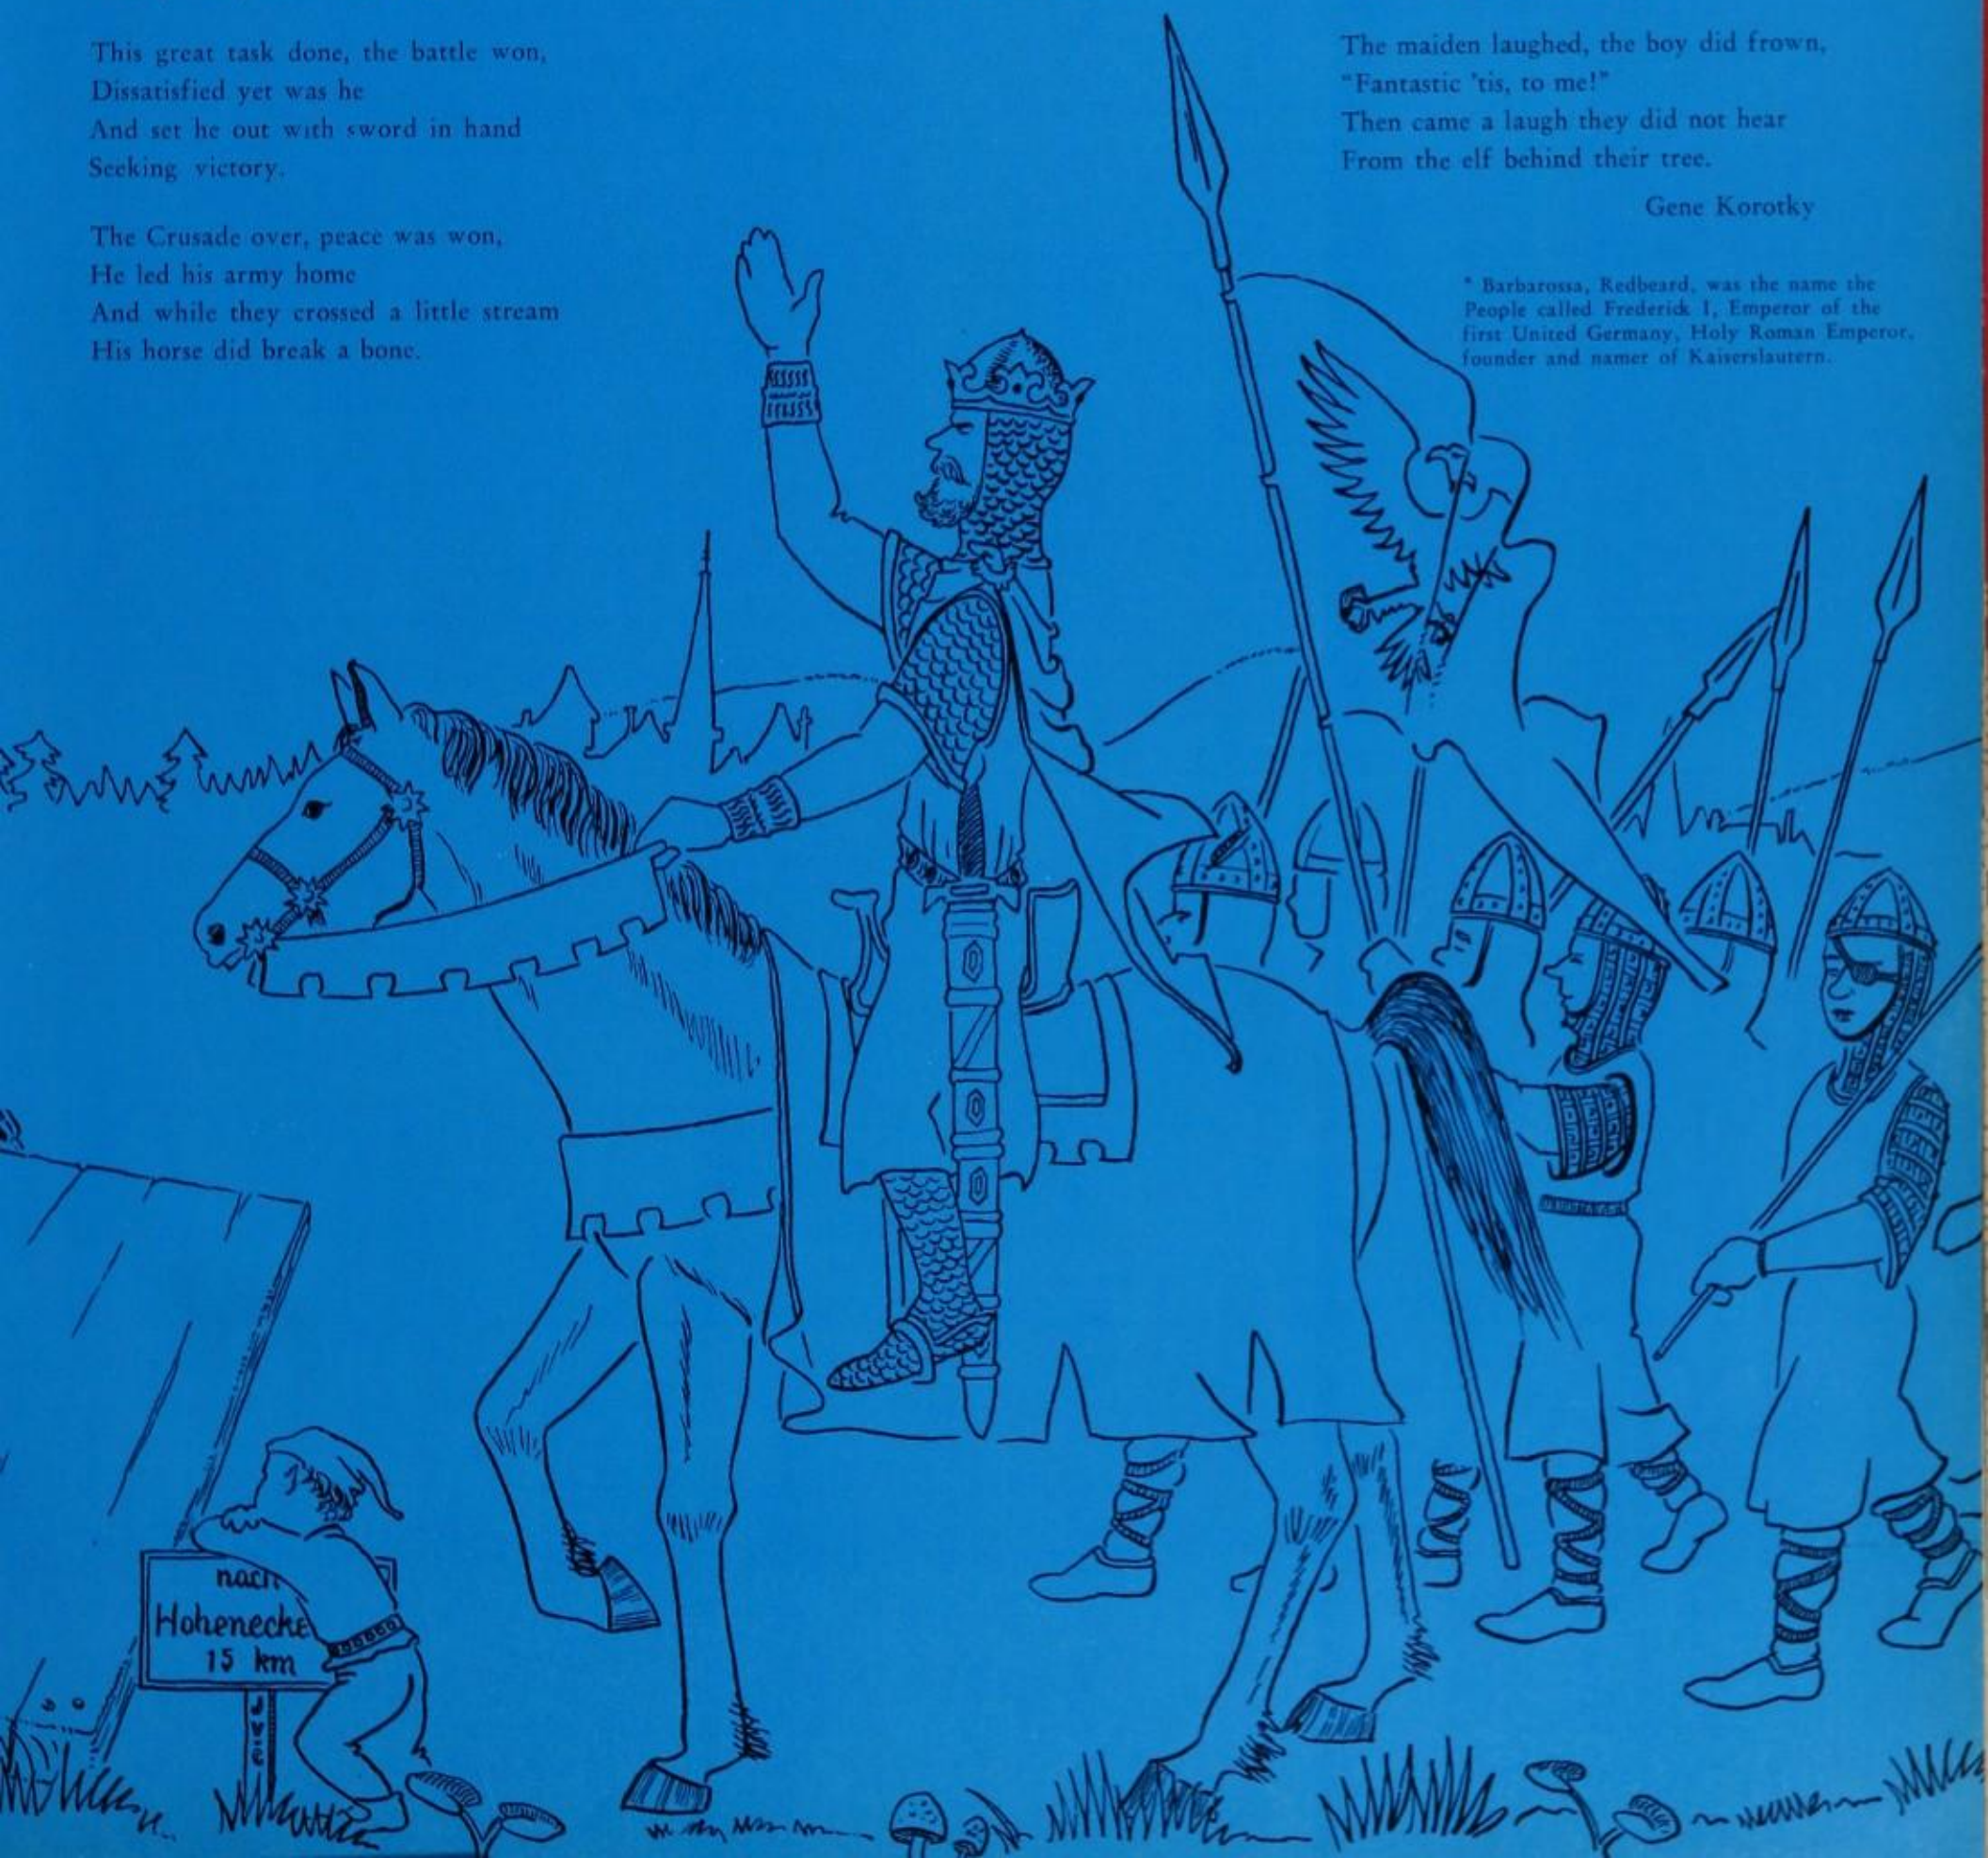
"Barbarossa will then arise
And straighten his mighty back,
Put on his mail, take up his sword,
And make the table crack."

"His army with him will awake
And fight against the foe
Until the land united is,
Then back to sleep he'll go."

The maiden laughed, the boy did frown,
"Fantastic 'tis, to me!"
Then came a laugh they did not hear
From the elf behind their tree.

Gene Korotky

* Barbarossa, Redbeard, was the name the People called Frederick I, Emperor of the first United Germany, Holy Roman Emperor, founder and namer of Kaiserslautern.



ADMINISTRATION

High School Principal

Mr. Davis is completing his first year as principal of Kaiserslautern American High School. Last year he was principal at Mahtomedi High School in suburban St. Paul, Minnesota. He holds a B. S. degree from St. Cloud State and an M. A. from the University of Minnesota. He also attended Michigan State, but he calls Minnesota home.

PHILIP HALFAKER

Assistant Principal

Besides attending to his other duties as assistant principal, Mr. Halfaker helps sponsor Student Council. He holds B. S. and M. A. degrees from Ball State Teachers College and also attended Indiana University. Indiana is his home state.

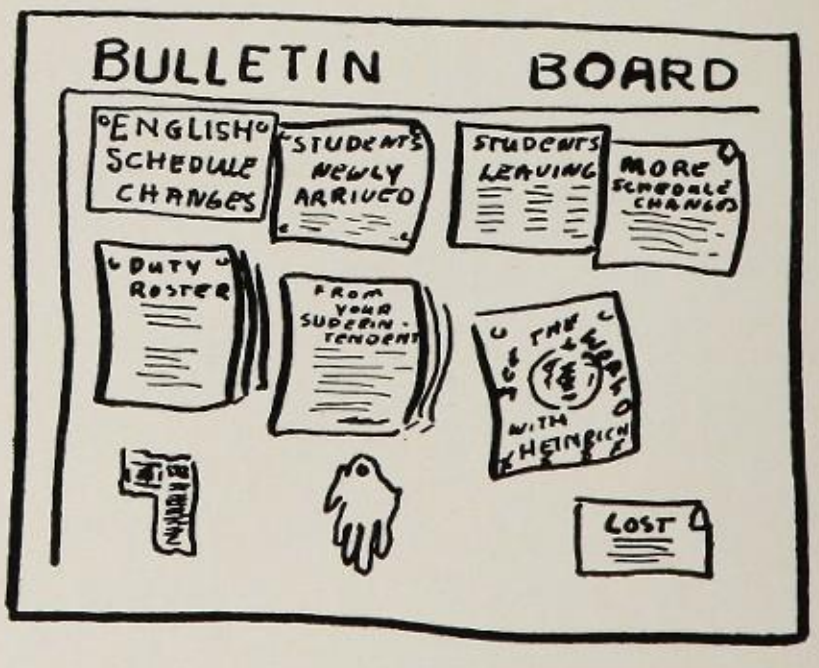
WALTER McKINLEY PATTERSON

Junior High School Principal

This is Mr. Patterson's second year in USAREUR schools. Last year he was a counselor at the high school. Colleges attented include Wake Forest, Atlantic Christian, East Carolina, George Peabody, and the University of Denver. He has earned the degrees B. A., Ed. Sc., and M. A. North Carolina is his home.

Tagged for shipment, Miss Jeanne Newhouse, center, and Miss Lois Day, right, arrive at K-Town "Bahnhof", happy to be at the end of a 5000-mile journey. They are welcomed by Miss Wilma Taylor.

Teachers new to Kaiserslautern American High School this year were amazed — not by strangeness, but by a familiarity they had not expected.



Here, American students, all temporary residents of temporary American military communities, gain permanent values and knowledge and begin to store lasting memories in a modern, fully accredited American high school. In their hearts, as in ours, it's "Rhine High Forever".

COUNSELORS

Counseling never begins and never ends. Before the spring semester is over students are advised and assisted in the selection of next year's courses with final registration accomplished before doors open in September. Before the student finishes his freshman year he is guided in planning for those important years after graduation. And through the years, day in and day out, the counselors remain ready to assist him toward success and away from failure in his high school years and after.

First assembly in the village theater, the only hall in our little town big enough to hold all 700 of us. The mighty chiefs of the Student Council were elected here this day.

Seniors Loran Mahoney and Pat Westman, far side of the table, and Marty Maher and Alan Gayer, near side, confer with Miss Rowe and Mr. Nolfo on college plans. They learn the practical advantages of a number of different colleges specializing in the career each has chosen, as well as scholarship opportunities.

JULIA M. ROWE

Guidance Counselor

Miss Rowe has been chief counselor in our school for two years. She also sponsors National Honor Society. Colleges she has attented include Grinnel College, Northwestern University, the University of Colorado, and Montana University. She holds B. A. and M. A. degrees. Her experience includes eight years at Iowa State College, freshman dorm counselor at Montana State University, and guidance counseling in Prescott Senior High School in Prescott, Arizona. She claims Arizona as her home state.

FACULTY

Chosen to head the faculty section is Miss Jeanne Newhouse, who, with her staff of student library assistants, serves the needs of every student and teacher in school. The unitiated, who have never read beyond the comics; the bewildered, doing their first research papers; and teachers, seeking auxiliary texts — all have been very grateful this year to our devoted librarian and her conscientious student staff.

THEIR STANDARD IS SERVICE

Colonel Robert D. Johnston commands Kaiserslautern Sub-Area for the second year. He has been an active supporter both of the school and of the Parent-Teachers Association, and he and his staff have found countless ways to help our school.

In an American school for military dependents, the dependence on the military is an essential factor. Students may be conscious only of such obvious proofs as clean building and grounds, free bus service for students living at a distance, availability of books and lab equipment, and the generous portions of good food in the cafeteria. Further checking shows that the willing and interested service of our military is complete and that it is everywhere.

Captain James J. Dwyer heads the direct military support of the school in his post as school officer. In his second year in this position, he is interested in all school activities and takes part in many phases of school life. He plans upon retirement next year to enter the field of education professionally.

STUDENT LEADERS ALSO SERVE

Rhine High hosted for the second successive year an area Leadership Conference, with talks by adult and student leaders, and with workshops. The local chapter of National Honor Society, assisted by Student Council, planned the highly successful one-day conference

Rhine High Principal Erwin L. Davis welcomes delegates to the Leadership conference.

Mr. Davis prepares the Rhine High group for their duties as hosts to student leaders from the American high schools in Mannheim, Karlsruhe, and Baumholder.

National Honor Society President Alan Gayer presents the speaker of the day, Lt. Gen. Paul Stehlin, who addressed the conferees on the problems and privileges of today's leadership.

Sergeant Virgil Young and his loyal, hard-working cafeteria staff serve breakfast for faculty members and other members of the school staff and several hundred hot lunches every school day to elementary, junior high, and high school students and teachers.

Ever happy and ever helpful, Frau Helene Hollerith is an important member of the custodial staff.

Captain Dwyer is directly responsible for military support of the entire Kaiserslautern American school system. The tremendous amount of paper work involved in this task is shared by Sgt. W. G. Jones, standing, and Specialist Roy Ellefson, at typewriter.

Our food is the best!

Abby Beggs, at telephone, and Rose Gmahl serve as the office staff. Miss Beggs is secretary to the principal, and Miss Gmahl handles student and faculty records.

Sfc. Edward R. LeMelle and Herr Otto Wagner, of the supply staff, pack freshly cleaned football uniforms for storage. They proudly hold that of Ray Johnson, USAREUR All-Star.

SENIORS

Seniors sing Rhine High's Alma Mater with more feeling than most, since they will soon be finished with what has often been called, probably by those who went to high school in ages past, "those carefree high school days".

Happy they have been, but carefree? Never. Seniors have worked long and conscientiously on homework, long hours of it; on putting over the highly successful senior play, The Curious Savage; on the Christmas formal, "Mood in Mistletoe", to which the entire school was invited; and on the never-ending stint of raising money for that rewarding and really great excursion to Paris in the spring.

We have been aided by all our teachers, but particularly by our sponsors, Mr. Pickerill, Mr. Cooper, Miss Bounds, and Mrs. McLin. And as we have worked together, partied together, and studied together, we have learned. We have loved it all, and we'll miss you all — teachers, classmates, friends.

Willis Brucker and Trish Webb, top photo, hand out little "joy gifts" to the lucky ones at the Christmas formal, while a member of the band looks on. Below, seniors Eleanor Rynearson, Mike Ruff, left, and Jim Cavenaugh and Barbara Dawes, right, enjoy intermission.

Life is but an empty dream

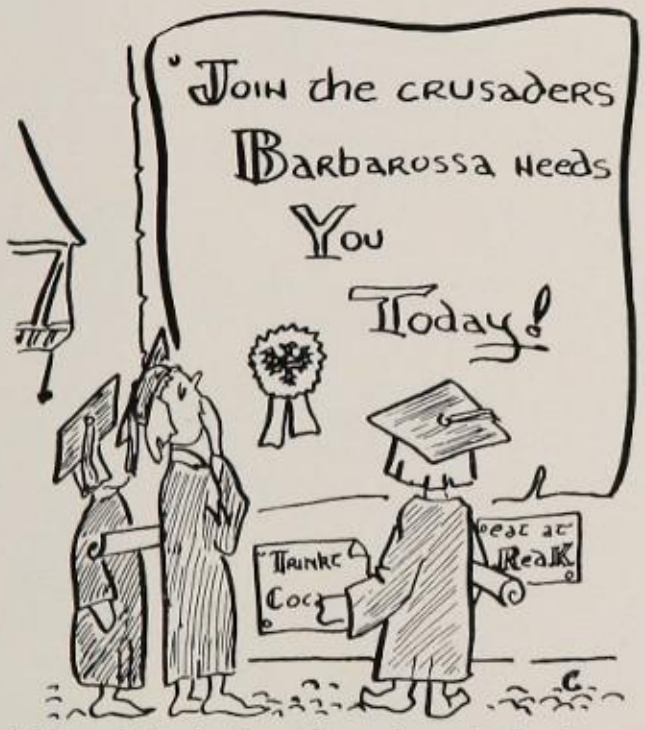
Paris in the Spring . . . the very words are magic and mean all things to all people. To the Seniors this spring it meant such things as the Eiffel Tower, breathtaking views of the City of Light, music and gaiety, Notre Dame. It has also meant the climax of our high school careers. The denoument, graduation, gives us the final word. Life stops . . . and begins.



Our rich and blessed Uncle Sam showed particular interest this year in making men of our senior boys, the Army way. As one after another of them registered for the draft they took interest in other times, other calls to duty. Right, Loran Mahoney, Ray O'Malley, Jim Akers, Bane Lyle, and Tommy Grace check one of G. Washington's recruiting posters.

Our first two years of high school were comparatively free of responsibility — except for homework, homework, homework. This year we face a new situation. In addition to homework, in triplicate, we have sold pretzels, candy, coke, hotdogs — in the rain at football games, under the neons during basketball season. We presented a wonderful play in the spring and everyone got into the act. We learned the amazing results that can be won by teamwork and we learned to know and appreciate each other and our sponsors — Miss Eileen Farniok, Mr. Frank Mills, Mr. Don Nutting, Miss Lois Day, Mr. Arthur Waters, Miss Maluta Read, and Mr. Robert Burton.

We juniors were always out after money, with the worthwhile goal of the prom in the spring, with the faculty and the mighty seniors as our guests. When all the decorations were torn down we finally realized that we had loved it all.

OUR OFFICERS HEADED THE JUNIOR TEAM

Despite worthwhile but time-taking community and school activities, money raising schemes, play, prom, and parties, our courses presented our greatest challange. Chemistry dealt a few mortal wounds. American History showed a formidable front but we conquered it and the subject is now ours forever. In English we attempted mastery of our native tongue and found it a drawn battle. Above and below are scenes from Miss Read's American History classes.

SOPHOMORES

Sophomores are the most numerous of any class in school and the most enthusiastic. The very name, sophomore, implies wisdom, and sophomores try to be worthy of the name.

The class has been active in all phases of school life. Ten boys lettered in varsity football, basketball and soccer, with several lettering in the junior varsity sports. Two varsity cheerleaders, two junior varsity cheerleaders, and one high-stepping majorette were sophomores. Homecoming sophomore princess was Cathy Haase.

Our sponsors deserve a great deal of credit for guidance during this past year. Miss Ruth Auker was chief sponsor, assisted by Miss Pauline Hoover, Mr. William Moser, Miss Betty Norval, Mr. Arthur Maethner, Mr. Blair Dickinson, Mrs. Elisabeth von Bakonyi, Mr. Michael Keshishian, and Mr. Gordon Sanders.

RHINE HIGH AT WORK AND PLAY

We learn to know what we are doing, why we are doing it, and how to do it best. Then work is no longer dullness and drudgery but fun and excitement.

Mr. Donald Nutting instructs James Darnell in the use of power tools.

Hanna Brazil, Ellen Blaylock, and Leanne Matish learn to make rolls during their home economics course.

Mr. Michael Keshishian checks Roland Cooper's draftsmanship in Mechanical Drawing class.

Making notes on what they observe under the microscope's lens are Martha Cosby, Randi Kane, Guy Postlewaite, with instructor Mr. Arthur Waters making his own notes.

Mr. Gordon Sanders and Mr. William Moser check out textbooks. In the dim recesses of the book room Supply Sergeant Edward LeMelle can be seen.

The four big social events of the year, in school calendar order, are the Homecoming Dance, the Christmas Formal, the Queen of Hearts (valentine) Ball, and the Junior-Senior Prom. The first two are shown on other pages and the last will be featured in The Raider and may be taped inside The Erinnerungen, along with issues covering other events occurring too late in the year to include in this book. The reign of the 1959 Queen of Hearts is shown below.

After eight years of apprenticeship members of the freshman class entered high school this year expecting almost any form of initiation. We were soon informed that no initiation would be allowed. However, we have bowed respectfully before the mighty seniors and other upper classmen in Teen Clubs, the cafeteria, and in the halls. With the help of our wonderful sponsors, Chief sponsor Mr. Worth Gurley, Miss Mary Loree Bond, Miss Barbara Heflin, Mrs. Mary Nooney, Mr. Edward Oerter, Miss Wilma Taylor, Mr. George Houghton, and Miss Louise Brimhall, we have accomplished a few things. We contributed a float as our entry in the Homecoming festivities. By our cake sales we had our first adventure in earning money. We are beginning to realize our responsibilities as citizens of this school. We now feel that we are a part of the high school world and that, officially or not, we have been duly initiated.

With a progressive faculty headed by Mr. Walter Patterson, principal, courses have been enlarged and extra-curricular activities, such as sports and hobby clubs, have been organized. In addition to the usual classroom subjects, the students also study music, art, German, and have library periods for learning about new books.

IN THE CLASSROOM

With the annual USAREUR Science Fair in the spring science classes are becoming more important. Shown here is a part of Mr. Max Weeks' eighth grade science class — left to right, Lee McClendon, Barbara Boyers, Carol Gipple, Margaret Taylor, Candy Gipple, Mr. Weeks, Suzanne Poursine, and Terry Hite.

ACTIVITIES

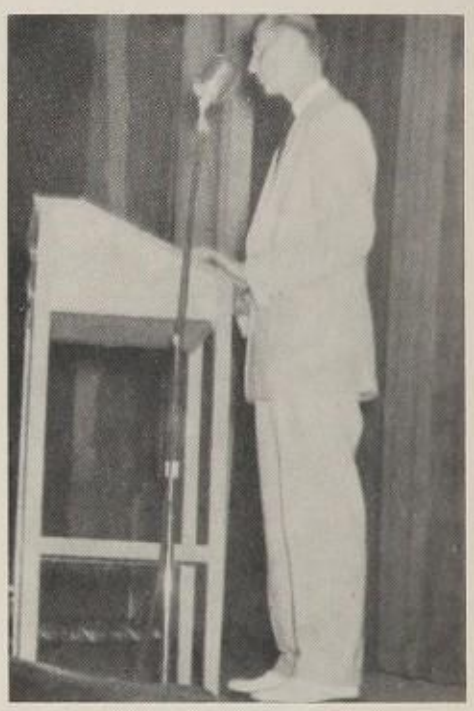
STUDENT COUNCIL

One of the largest and certainly the most representative organization in school is the Student Council, the voice of the students in policy matters and the leader of the students in school activities.



Joe Gruender addresses his constituents.

At the beginning of the year, various student leaders campaigned with political vigor right up to the time of final balloting at the first all-school assembly in the Vogelweh theater.

Eleanor Rynearson and Pat Diggs post the latest picture of Elvis' arrival in Germany, side by side on the central bulletin board with other cultural items of interest.

A minor council project but a pleasant one was decoration of the Christmas tree in the central corridor. Eddie Scott, Faye Ward, Frances Sills, and Paul Steer add tinsel.

Elizabeth Bevan, right, general chairman of Homecoming, meets with committee chairmen Eleanor Rynearson, Frances Grosse, Jim Cavenaugh, and Cathy Haase.

In addition to many minor projects, which kept the committees busy during regular weekly meetings, the Student Council successfully promoted the Homecoming float parade, half-time ceremonies, and the dance. Probably their other biggest project was the assistance they gave to the National Honor Society in the NHS-promoted area leadership conference held for outstanding high school students of the area here in February.

At the time of the official photograph of Student Council members and alternates, not all members were present.

Officers of the Society are Alan Gayer, president; Alison Barrett (seated), secretary; and Jan McLin, treasurer.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is an organization designed to stimulate and recognize those students excelling in leadership ability, service to the school and community, school citizenship, and character.

The Kaiserslautern chapter of the Honor Society stimulates scholarship in school by identifying and publicizing honor roll students. As a group, and indirectly as individuals, the National Honor Society leads student policies and guides the philosophy of the school.

In January the regular members met with prospective members.

Back row: Jim Cavenaugh, Eleanor Rynearson, Bill Adams, Kathy Schade, Greg Holoquist, Patricia Thurlo, Sandra Lockney, and Paul Steer

Front row: Michael Ruff, Trish Webb, Elizabeth Bevan, Jan McLin, Alan Gayer, Barbara Dawes, Alison Barrett, Don Cavett, and Francis Springer

Called from their classrooms in a surprise ceremony and tea just before Christmas, prospective members were handed honor scrolls.

HONOR ROLL CLUB

National Honor Society hosted coke parties for honor roll students at end of each nine weeks. Each honor roll student earned a B-plus average grade in order to win the red and white badge of honor.

The National Honor Society again promoted the area Leadership Conference, a project which it initiated last year, in conjunction with the Student Council. Pierce Shikoski, Alan Gayer, Eleanor Rynearson, and Ronald Lane (not shown) made up the steering committee which hosted the conference in Kaiserslautern in February.

National Merit Scholarship finalists — Jan McLin, Kathy Schade, and Alan Gayer — ranked scholastically with the upper one per cent of high school seniors across the nation, bringing distinction to the school and becoming eligible for various scholarships.

MUSIC

Vocal director, Miss Mary Holmes, leads the chorus in carol singing through the corridors during Christmas week.

The select group of girls' voices, the NONETTES, was made up this year of Jane Schlaak, Carol Hoilman, Letha Cole, Cindy Jones, Margo Jessel, Jan McLin, Trish Webb, Ann Keller, Judy Shoup, Pat Diggs, Laurie Rezarch, and Alison Barrett.

The best of the school's male voices joined with the Nonettes to form the popular HARMONEERS.

Back row: Guy Postlewait, Arnold Jones, Gene Meyers, Bill Haase, Rudy Irizarry, Bill Hoilman, and John Krause. Cliff Cizan, Jose Calderon, and Richard Nyhan were not present for the picture.

Front row: Jane Schlaak, Letha Cole, Cindy Jones, Margo Jessel, Jan McLin, Trish Webb, Ann Keller, Judy Shoup. Laurie Rezarch, Alison Barrett, Pat Diggs, and Carol Hoilman.

CHORUS was a credit course this year as well as an after-school activity. Members were:

Back Row: Arnold Jones, Schuyler Wheeler, Bill Hoilman, Tommy Cross, Andy Snow, James Diggs, Drew Moore, Richard Nyhan, Jon Nelson, John Reeves, Larry Brower, Brian Weeks

The band, under the baton of Mr. Burdette Fore, has kept busy this year participating in concerts and playing at athletic events. They are especially proud of the performance of their newly-trained majorettes at the Homecoming parade. Biggest event of the year was the trip to Karlsruhe, where they rehearsed with other bands for three days and finally together played the Music Festival program. Several members were honored this year by being chosen to participate in the All-USAREUR German-American Festival Band which gave a concert in Frankfurt.

THIS IS THE YEAR FOR SCIENCE

Don Allison, Bill Hoilman, and Don Cavett distill water during a Science Club meeting.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Scroll, International Honorary Society for High School Journalists, gives recognition to juniors and seniors of scholastic merit who have done superior work in some phase of journalism. It encourages in interested students the literary creativity needed in both the yearbook and the newspaper. Rhine High's Gutenberg Chapter, the first chapter in Europe, is in its second year. Sponsors are Mrs. Elva McLin and Mr. Gordon Sanders.

THE RAIDER

The Raider is a printed picture of life at Rhine High. It serves as a training situation for those students desiring a career in journalism and for those who wish to improve their ability to express themselves in writing. Staff members this year were Pat Hagen, Dee Davis, Jean Rogers, Jane Hart, Jay Copland, Mike Nesbit, Rudy Koch, Fran Grosse, Ruth Redpath, Louise Martin, Mary Hagen, Cecilia Rufkahr, Judy Valersky, Patti Mulligan, Barbara Medinger, Edwina Markham, Peggy Ryan, Nancy Schindler, Sandy Wimmer, Pat Mayfield, and adviser Mr. Gordon Sanders.

ART CLUB

Rhine High artists worked day in and day out as their many fine exhibits throughout the school testify, but they met irregularly, too busy to pose for a group picture. They prefered instead to be represented by their work. They maintained an art bulletin board in the main corridor, the display case, decorations of the faculty lounge and their own art rooms, in addition to taking local field trips and sketching on the scene.

Actors, producers, directors, prop men, and stage crews had a full-time career at Rhine High this year. Beginning with the senior class production of The Curious Savage, the drama class and music department's A Child Is Born for Christmas viewing, to the spring presentation by the junior class of Arsenic and Old Lace. Directors were Mr. George Houghton, Miss Mary Holmes, and Miss Pauline Hoover, with Mr. Robert Burton assisting.

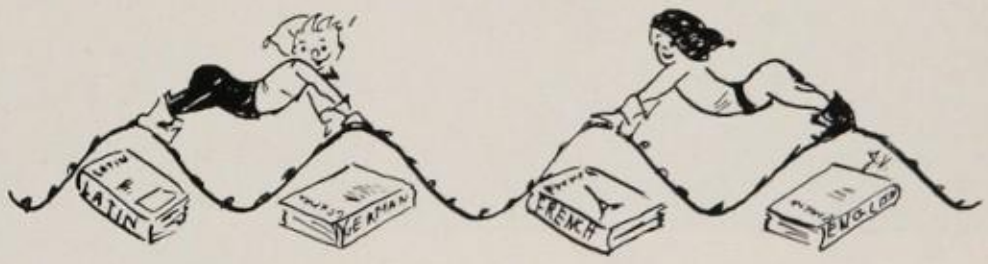
COMMUNITY LIFE

Students enjoyed almost unlimited opportunity in improving their own foreign language skills and doing their bit in developing closer relationships between the school and the community, both German and American.

Mr. Arthur Maethner, one of the few American teachers of German in our schools, contributes this bit of pidgin' Deutsch:

"Wouldst dou learn die Deutsche sprechen?
Den set id on your kard
Dat all die Nouns haf schenders
Und die schenders all are hardt!"

German students from the all-male Hochschule in Kaiserslautern visited classes several times during the year. Above, they receive classroom instruction from American girls; below left, Principal Davis invites them to lunch in the cafeteria.



Rhine High Time, aired each Saturday over AFN-Kaiserslautern, sent out music and teen-talk, gained German as well as American fans.

AYA AND TEEN CLUB

The corner drug, the pop shop, the teen gasthaus — all are found in the local teen clubs and American Youth Activities (AYA) club houses. For sandwiches at noon, ping pong after school, or dances on weekends, the teen clubs are crowded. Closest to the school is the Red K Teen Club next door. Students commuting to Rhine High from other American communities have teen clubs in their own neighborhoods, but part of the value of these clubs is that members of one are welcome in another.

Cokes, French fries, and catsup are popular at the Red K at noon, served by Ma and Pa Cobb.

Waiting for the bus at the AYA.

Floodlights and television cameras made a happy invasion of Rhine High classrooms last fall, to record for Stateside home viewers the activities of an American high school in Europe. The picture is expected to be released any day now on the Army television show, "The Big Picture". Miss Mary Loree Bond, girls physical education instructor, starred in the 25-minute movie. At left she is shown, with a member of the Military Police who was passing through, getting her first look at the cameras. At right, she doubles as a commercial teacher. HOMECOMING

Looking back on one of the most memorable weekends of the year, it is hard to decide just what was the high point of Homecoming. Coming from a scoreless first half to win the game from Munich in the second was probably the most generally satisfactory event of game day, but for excitement this event was closely followed by the coronation of Queen Sandra Lockney and the parade of floats, and still later that evening by the Homecoming dance.

Those who are skeptical about an overseas American high school staging a "homecoming" would have been amazed at the number of University students and students who had transferred to other schools who returned for the weekend.

Entering floats, in addition to the winners, were Quill and Scroll, Student Council, and the freshman, junior, and sophomore classes.

Attendants to the queen were Faye Ward, Judy Shoup, Cathy Haase, and Jean Hartin. Elizabeth Bevan was Homecoming chairman. Her committee is shown on the Student Council page.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Despite repeated injuries and lack of experience, the varsity squad fought to the last game. After the first two games injuries sidelined many first string players, seriously handicapping the team. Two games were lost by only one point, one of them to the undefeated champions of the league, Frankfurt. Ray Johnson, all-USAREUR halfback, was selected as the most valuable player of the year. Robbie Robinson, quarterback, was chosen as the team captain of the year. The outstanding lineman was Doug Person.

Soccer became a major sport at Rhine High this year, with team members receiving varsity letters. The soccer season culminated with a record of three wins, one tie, and one loss. With a winning team the squad played hard to win the championship in the spring tournament.

School spirit is important behind any team, and the Rhine — High cheerleaders handled the job of keeping it high. No pep assembly or game would have been complete without these cheering twelve. Keeping pep and personality, the girls were always on hand to keep spirits high. Under the eneretic leadership of Peggy Ryan and Mary Kearns, these cheerleaders made posters, organized new cheers, improved old ones, conducted pep assemblies, and cheered at games. These girls rank high as avid Rhine — High supporters.

THE RAIDER

Raiders of Rhine High
Trace their spiritual ancestry
And their traditions
Of Red for courage and White for honor
Back through the ages
To the beginning of Europe;
To the Raiders from the North
Whose feats have become legend — —
Whose daring has made the Raider
Rhine High's symbol of power and glory;
Back to Barbarossa, Frederick I,
Theme builder for Erinnerungen;
The Red-Beard, too, the symbol
For unity and high purpose.
American youth, on limited loan,
Studying and living, all as short-timers,
Adopt their traditions from ages past — —
Adopting, adapting, and mellowing
To fit their present need.
Yet will the enchantment linger,
Projecting into our future,
Coloring all our memories
With pictures, ever changing,
Of youth in an ancient setting.

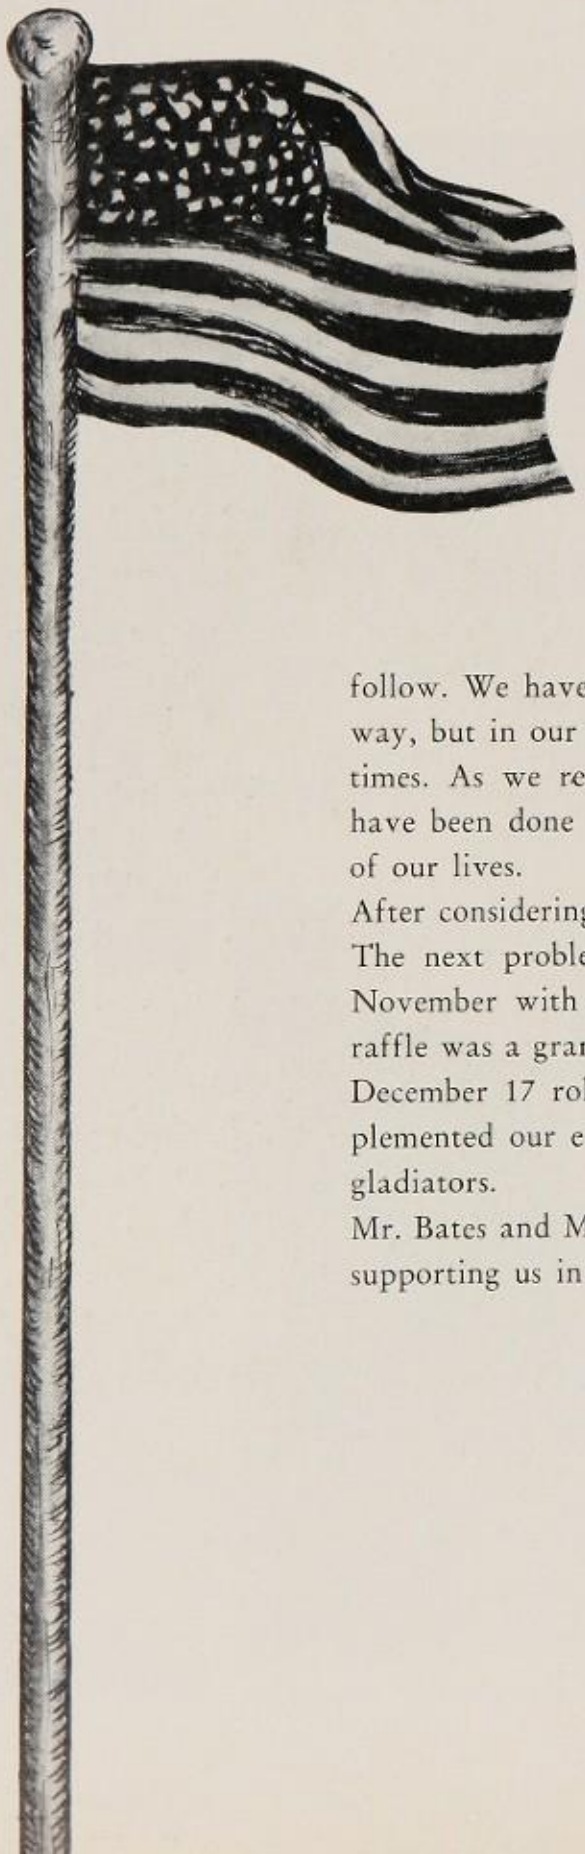
SENIOR CLASS



"All the world's a stage and the men and women merely players."
Shakespeare.

In the gigantic production entitled life, we the seniors of 1959 wish to make our grand entrance. Amid the applause at graduation time the curtain falls on Act Four, which is merely a prelude to the important role we are to undertake.

Many of us will act behind the scenes of this play called life; others will go on to direct and produce it. With the love of God and country as our script, we shall share in the vast unfolding of this tremendous epic.

However, with the strength and hope of youth, we shall attain success in the grand theater of life.

As our last year in high school comes to a close, we seniors only now can realize the hardships and decisions that face us in the years to follow. We have planned our years to suit our futures. Each of us will go a separate way, but in our hearts will remain fond memories of friends, past activities, and good times. As we remember, some things could have been done better, some should not have been done at all, but we would not change any of it; for there lies the making of our lives.

After considering Paris, London, and Venice we decided to travel to Rome this spring. The next problem was the money — how to obtain it? We conducted a raffle in November with a trip to London, Paris, and Zurich for two as the first prize. The raffle was a grand success, and we had taken a big step in the direction of Rome when December 17 rolled around and the winners were chosen. Cake sales and dances supplemented our earnings and provided us with a few fabulous days in the land of the gladiators.

Mr. Bates and Miss Vedany, our advisors, assisted us in many ways throughout the year, supporting us in every way possible — and for this support we are sincerely thankful.

JUNIOR CLASS

As the third act of our high school educational life concludes, we review our accomplishments — and realize that we have fulfilled our promise to be the "worthy juniors of today".

Our year began with the election of class officers, ordering class rings, and getting the year's activities on the road. With the Junior-Senior Prom as our main objective, we started on the long, hard job of adding money to our treasury. This was accomplished by the sponsoring of many money-making activities such as cake sales, dances, and our "grand" Powder Puff Football Game in which we defeated the mighty seniors. Our efforts were all finally rewarded when the night of nights came. We feel our prom was the best ever and will, we are sure, linger long in the hearts of all who attended.

We were a well-represented class, with many of our members participating in cheerleading, football, basketball, and track. Ours was also an active group in Student Council and National Honor Society where our members worked toward the achievement of our goal: to set good examples of outstanding leadership, service, character, and scholarship, and to maintain an outstanding social position as upperclassmen.

To Miss Dutton and Mr. VanVoorhis, our sponsors, we would like to express our sincere appreciation for the help they have given us during the year which has played a great part in making our junior year at Mannheim a great success.

We will always remember the many cherished hours and memories we have gained from Mannheim High School. This is only the last scene to act three — in a few, short, cherished moments the curtain will be rising on "La Grande Finale" — "Act Four, 1960".

The curtain rose in September 1958 on the sophomore class of Mannheim High with a cast of approximately one hundred players under the capable direction of our sponsors, Mr. Mills and Mr. J. Crawford.

Our principal performers were William Tarrant, president: Diane Reyburn, vice-president; Anthony Iorio, secretary; and James Larkin treasurer.

In Scene I the sophomores were represented in the Junior Red Cross, Student Council, newspaper staff, choral groups, and various clubs. Scene I also took place on the football and soccer fields, and basketball courts where the spotlight fell on boys of the sophomore class and our three young ladies who cheered our school to many glorious victories.

As Scene II opens the background changes to the chalk-dust filled classrooms where the sophomores are striving to gain a foothold on the academic ladder of success. Each day we delve farther into the intricacies of math, science, and the languages. We predict that our stars will shine brightly on the horizon of future junior and senior classes.

FRESHMEN CLASS

No! We did not have a key that very first day, but we opened the door to an entirely different world. As we started our first year in the "important four", we were eager and full of energy, ambitions, and ideas. In a frenzy of activity we signed up for classes and clubs.

It's funny to look back and remember how we shook in our shoes when an upper classman came near for we know now they are just as friendly as can be and, you see, we've wiggled our way into the hearts of the best, as only a freshman can.

As June rolls around, we find ourselves looking back over this eventful year with misty eyes, but with shining eyes we look forward into our future years in the vast program of learning.

We want to thank Mr. Hovey and Mr. Rhodes, our class sponsors, for their help during the school year.

Janet Evans, Secretary-Treasurer; Edward McCormick, President; Janice Newman, Vice-president

"If the freshmen didn't read so much, we wouldn't have to shelve all these books" mumbled Karen. "Especially Susan, Nancy, and Bonnie" said Roger.

Since the seventh and eighth grades represented such a large proportion of our student body, we felt it was our duty and responsibility to participate in all of our school functions. Throughout the year we did all we could to make this 1958-59 season a successful one. To our fellow students in the years to come we would like to leave these words of advice: In the drama of life "Act well your part, there all the honor lies". It's good advice. We know!

Germany meets the United States represented by Mannheim High School in the NATO Tournament held in Mannheim.

FOOTBALL came and went in a flash of pride for Mannheim High School. This was our first year of eleven - man competition, and we managed to finish third in the class AA League. On October 11 at Heidelberg the Mannheim eleven came from behind to triumph over the Lions by a 7-6 margin. Our eleven fought hard and won in the waning seconds of the game. The existing rivalry between the two schools was thus intensified. The highly respected Nürnberg eleven came to Mannheim on the 19th of November. The conflict that ensued was a memorable one, for when the smoke of battle cleared Mannheim was the victor of the 19-6 conflict. For Coach Murray this was a crowning achievement in his first year as coach.

THE BASKETBALL SEASON of 1958—59 for Mannheim High School promises to be a very successful one. The team shows great potential in speed, control, and in shooting. Coach Sonderson is planning to utilize this potential and weld the team into a strong winning unit.

We hope to get things rolling when Kaiserslautern invades Mannheim January 13. The student body appears anxious and ready to support their team to the end.

Before the season began in December, Mannheim participated in the NATO Tournament which was held here. Two of our players, Charles Bethel and Charles Howard, were chosen for the European All-Star team that was to compete against the team of American All-Star players.

With the hard work and combined efforts of the entire team, this successful season will end at the Tournaments in Munich.

Hail beloved halls of Mannheim.
There our hearts return always,
Bringing to our thoughts so clearly
Memories of those happy days.

There the crisp air rang with cheers.
All our joyous thoughts of Mannhein
Coming down across the years.

During the school year our Student Council helped foster the belief that: "Good order is the foundation of all good things".

STUDENT COUNCIL – NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Our Student Council, sponsored by Mr. Bull and Mr. Webb, endeavors to set a good example of democracy. The representatives report to their individual classes to inform them of the activities of the Council. For the first time in the history of Mannheim High, the Student Council of 58-59, sponsored a school store. We also advocated a dress-up day which took place once every week. We believe that good schools can be promoted by better Student Councils.

Another equally important group in school is the National Honor Society. The purpose of the Mannheim Chapter is to create an enthusiam for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in the students of Mannheim High School.

By preparing the honor roll, setting the example for others, and serving the school, our Mannheim Chapter, sponsored by Mrs. Fox, has fulfilled its duty to the students and faculty of our school.

"LIGHT IS THE TASK WHEN MANY SHARE THE WORK." Just as a theatrical production, an annual takes the work of many to be a success. A few players, who have proven themselves to be experienced showmen, will share the limelight, but many will do the important jobs behind the scenes. Some will write the "script", some will plan the "settings", and some will paint the "props". Together, with the efforts of the staff and Mr. Bates, our sponsor, combined, we will produce a successful play.

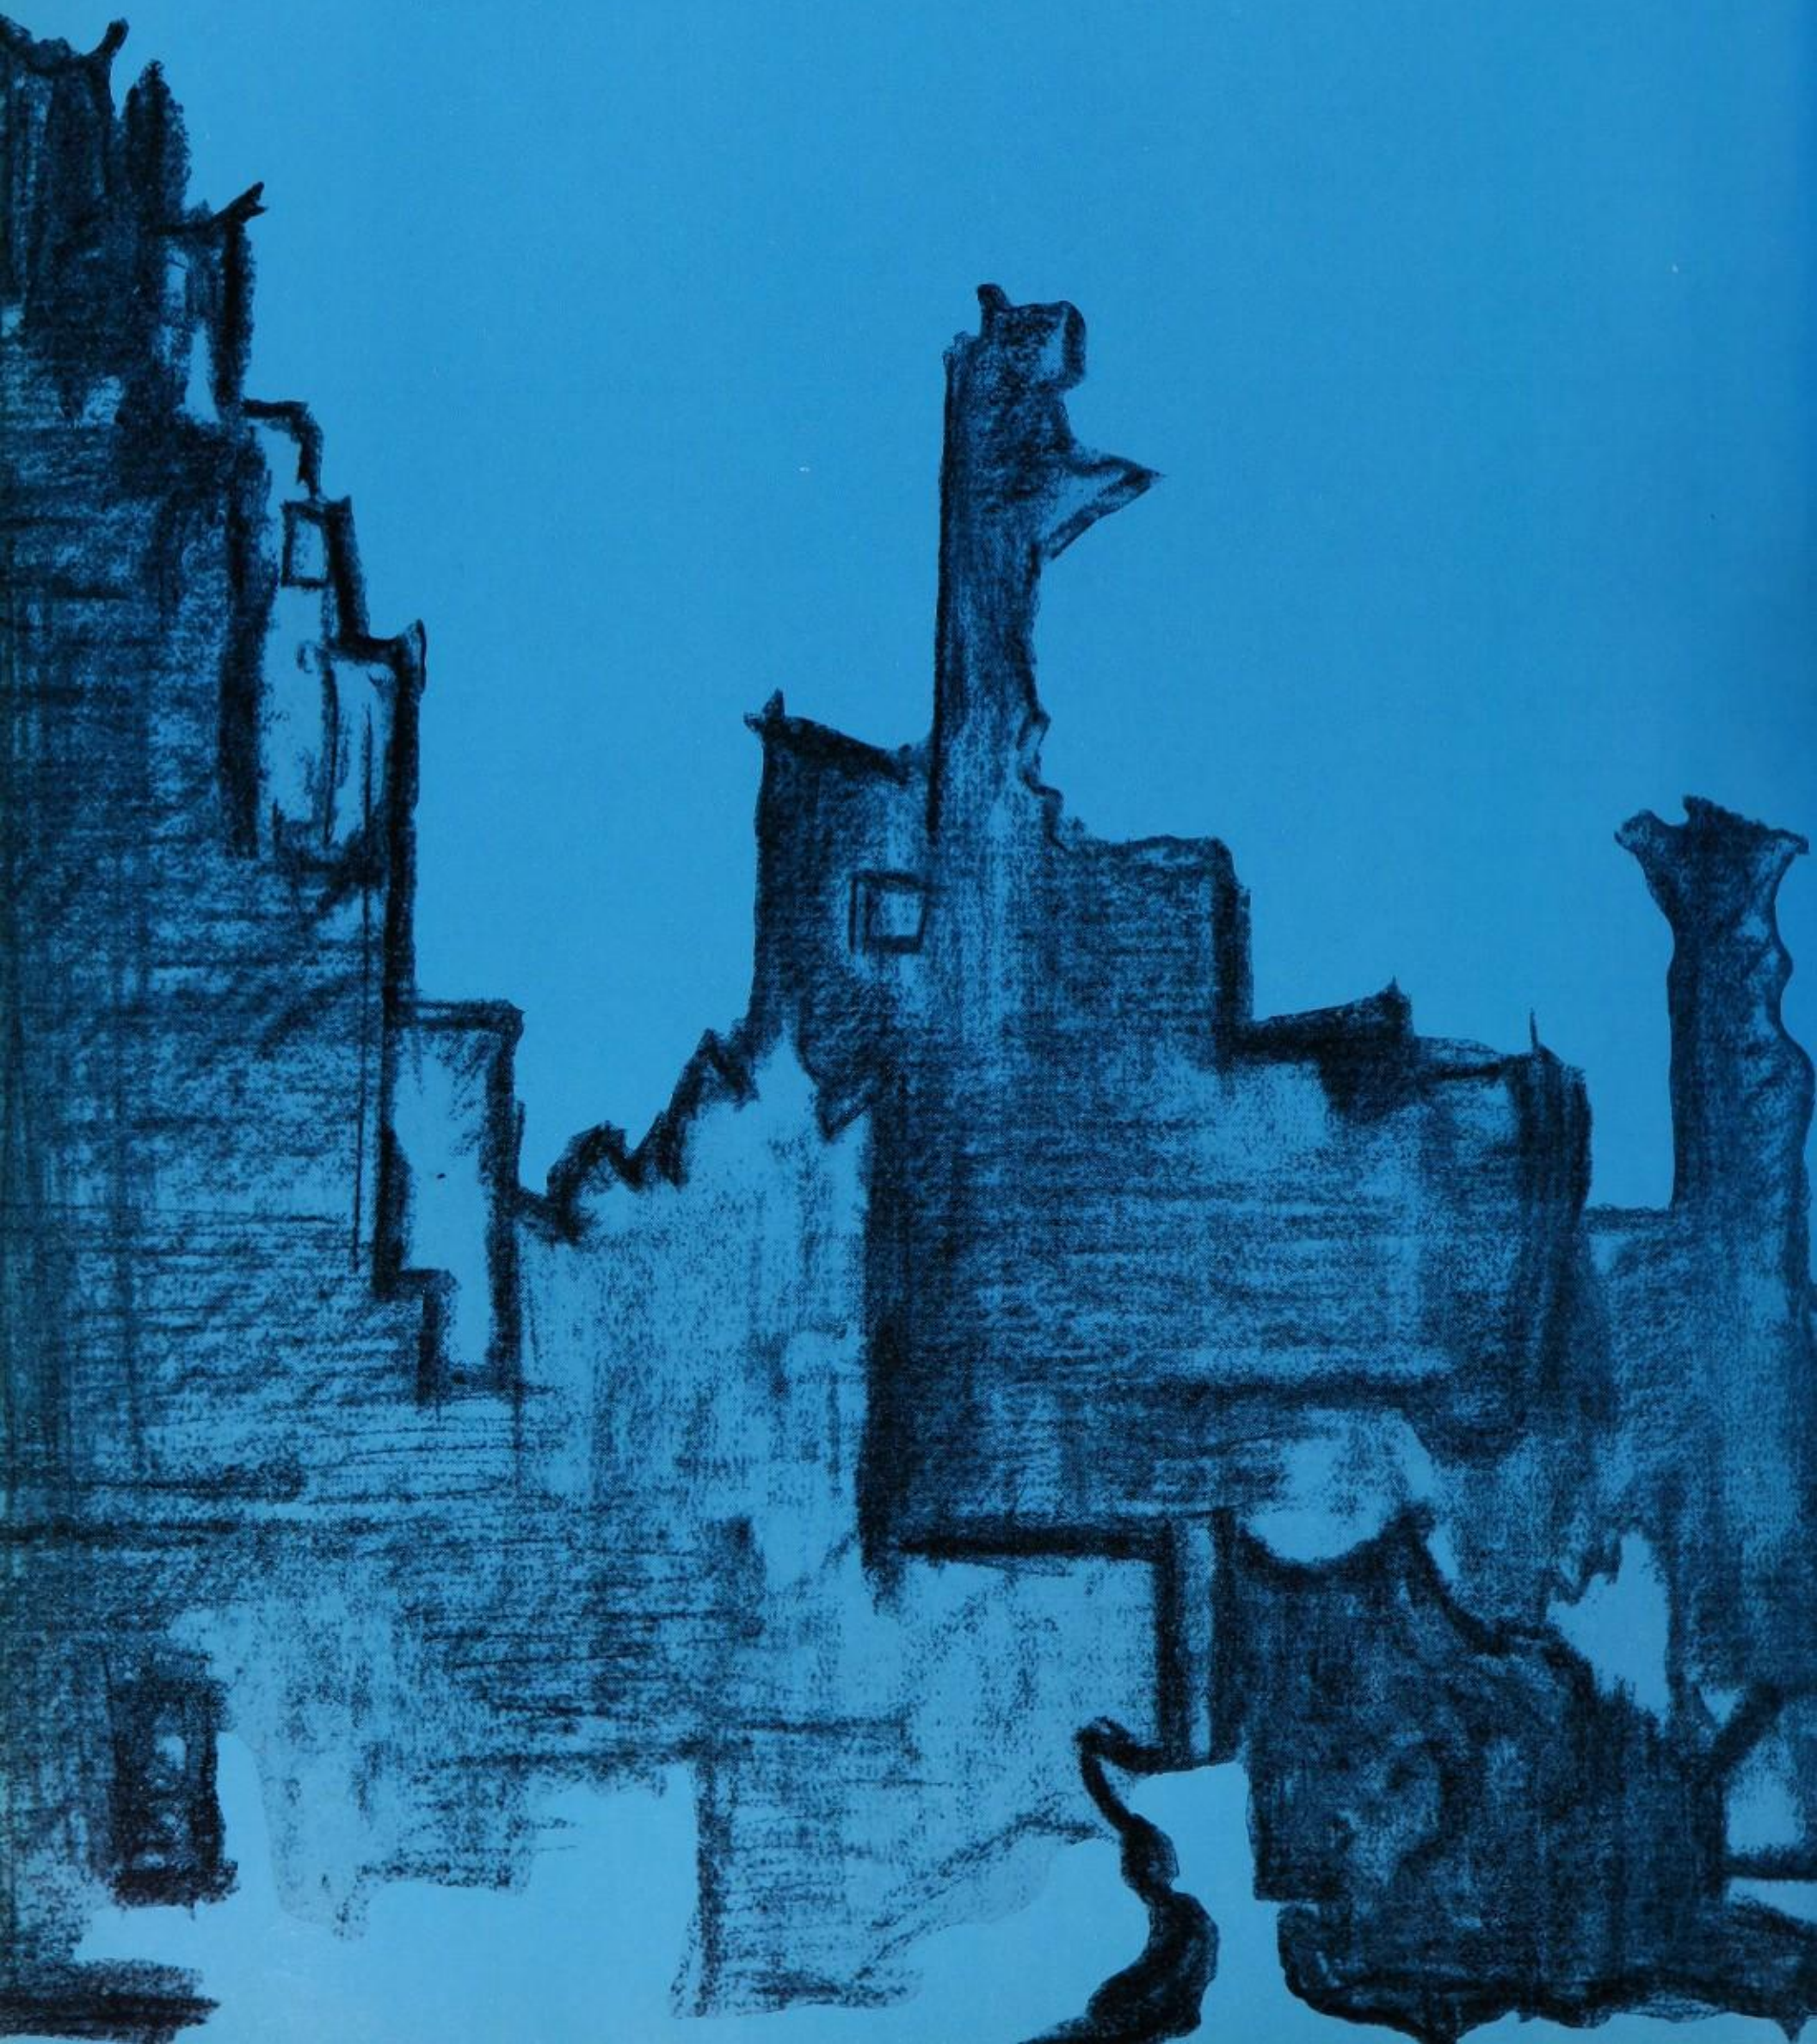
MUNICH



I look upon the city —
The beautiful city, (the city of my school),
But here, there I see deserted, naked relics.
Reminders!
Yes, there are reminders —
Skeletons of the past,
Monuments of the present.

1945 This Munich,
This stately Munich!
The lights flashed once, lights of despair,
Ugly lights,
Oh, was there no hope?
Destruction everywhere,
No rest,
No peace,
Then, Darkness.

1963 This Munich,
This beautiful Munich!
Is it the old, the ancient
Which make it [illegible]
Parts, yes, maybe parts,
But I see it clearly, as never before:
The newness, the brilliance,
The knowledge that made it so.
At last there is peace,
Progress,
Prosperity,
Now, Light.

Mary Schmidt
Munich Senior

T'was a spark,
Only a spark —
And yet it stands out in my mind.
A beginning,
A sign of hope.
I saw it as I stood wondering, not knowing what was ahead —
But knowing suddenly,
Somehow,
That this mere gleam would lead me
And grow as I advanced.

Oh, dark and ignorance,
You forever surround me!
But I stand not alone
Others around me must also stand against you.
And the gleam,
Now developing,
Now maturing,
Still guides me.
It leads me upward, onward,
To my goal.

Guides are these,
Guides that lead us towards the light of achievement.
Sometimes cruel, they are,
Sentences we write, sometimes;
When we look back on all the learning and the enjoyment, however,
We then remember how much we, the students, really owe,
Owe to the men and women we call teachers.

ADMINISTRATION

Formally, these men and women are our administration, our teachers and directors; but to us they are much more than formal necessities. They taught us about the humanities, the sciences, and other academic subjects with an eye for the future, our future; industrial arts and many kinds of commercial work have been introduced by these men and women to us, helping us in the decision of what field to enter after school life is finished. Because of their willingness to help, their patience at times when all seems hopeless, and the encouragement they have given us, we can face the future with a bright outlook.

Honey!
I love you
Do you love me?
You have two more
States, but always be a sweet good boy.
Love,
Mom

I saw it as I stood wondering,
not knowing what was ahead –
But knowing suddenly,
Somehow,
That this mere gleam would lead me
And grow as I advanced.

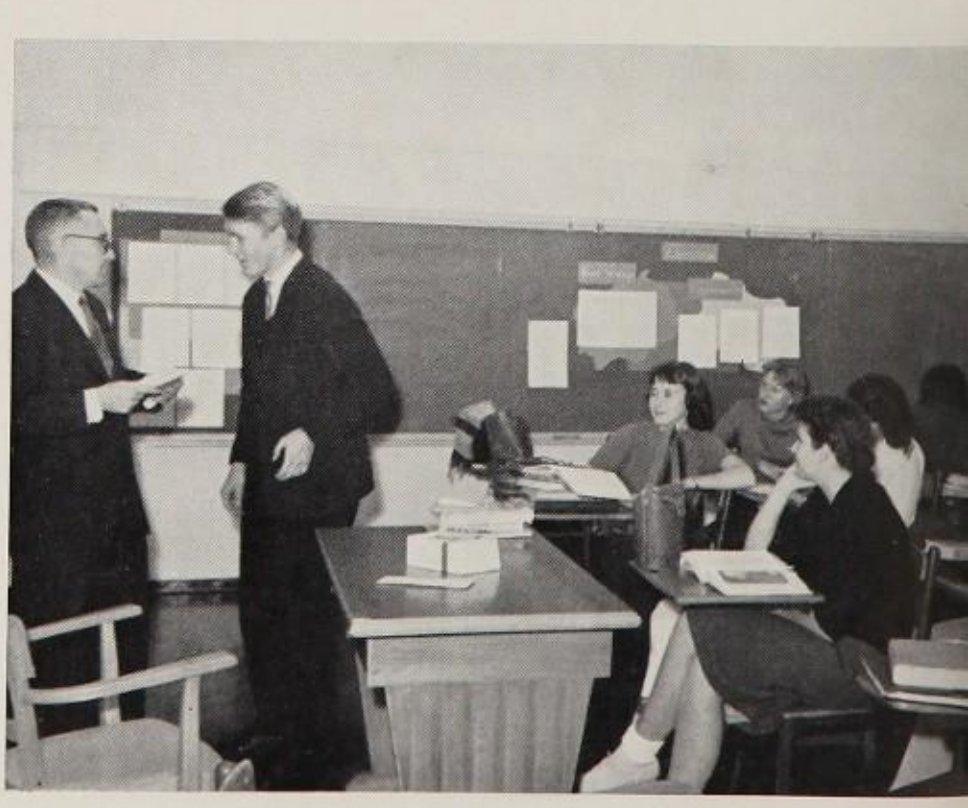
The first years of our lives are vague and happy memories. Unpleasant experiences seem dim because, I guess, we weren't old enough to remember the bad; only the good stands out.

For us, the seniors of MHS, this carefree life ends in a very few weeks, when we graduate. The pranks we played, the punishment sentenses — these and more pass into the class labeled "childhood", and we find ourselves face to face with life.



German students visit to observe one of our senior English classes.

Carol's portrayal of Julie in Liliom helped make the senior class play a success.

We must decide now if we are to be successful as Americans, aiding ourselves and our country; or if we are to become failures, failures to ourselves and to our parents and all the friends and teachers who have helped us in our journey so far. Whatever our decision may be depends on us individually. No matter how dim and uninviting life may seem as we look to the future, however, we are all entering it with a confidence given to us by our days at Munich High.

I STOOD WONDERING, NOT KNOWING WHAT WAS AHEAD

The seniors of 1959 composed one of the largest and most successful senior classes in the history of Munich High School. The greatly increased number of members naturally meant an influx of good, new ideas that benefited our school. The highly successful senior class play, Liliom, grossed almost $1,000 to set the stage for the attainment of the year's goal, $4,000.

Guided by Mr. Zibell and Miss Oldach, and led by President Peyton Galloway, Vice-President Charles Massey, Secretary Mary Schmidt, and Treasurer Tuula Keravuori, the seniors initiated for the first time a "point system" that enabled them to determine the eligibility of all the members for the senior class trip.

The record left behind by the departing "elite" is enviable, but it is only what would be expected as a result of the endeavors of this hardworking class.

Did you find it yet, Bob?

At last the class of 1960 became envied upper classmen. Our first move was the election of a fine governing body made up of President Larry Albert, Vice-President John Duncan, Secretary Joann Cunningham, and Treasurer Jody Keeshen.

In the spring we gave our play, followed by the year's climatic point, the Junior-Senior Prom. These two events highlighted the year, but left room for other memories of incidents which made our junior year at MHS one of the sparks in our quickly progressing lives.

The class of 1961 had a busy time this year. The class sponsored an outstanding event in March, the Saint Patrick's Day dance. The leaders of the class who helped us to be so successful were President Ed Bell, Vice-President Joe Pyland, Secretary Phyllis Park, and Treasurer Speedy Otto. We all helped the class standards by doing our best to keep our grade average high or by participating in class and school activities, or both. The things we accomplished will always remain in our minds and that "these and many more add to our lives and help us advance."

We see but a spark
And we know it is the beginning,
The beginning of a long journey through the paths of life.
As the journey is only as good as its end,
We strive for perfection,
And so escape from
The darkness.

Initiation, that was really some event to get our first year of high school off to a great start. The upper class men thought we were so young and new at so many things that we could do no right. But we showed them and ourselves that we could do many things. Leading us were President Pat Jones, Vice-President Jerry Johnson, Secretary Judie Olsen, and Treasurer Jouni Keravuori. The outstanding event of the year was the Valentine's Day Dance that we sponsored, showing all that we have begun our journey successfully.

CLASS OF 1963

Still struggling to find the path towards high school life, the eighth grade succeeded outstandingly. Its student council was a sure sign of advancement, giving the eighth graders a chance to develop their leadership qualities. Helping the high school by sending representatives to the Junior Red Cross, the newspaper, and the Erinnerungen committee also brought a lot of activity to these students in their struggle to learn.

CLASS OF 1964

Having barely begun their search for knowledge, the seventh grades directed their strides ahead, not letting inexperience hinder them in any way. They worked hard to do their best by also participating in the Junior Red Cross, the Mustang Messenger, and the Junior High Student Council. These things and many more have taught the "lowest of the low" that they have much ahead of them and much to look forward to.

Interesting Herr Foeldes-Papp mixes German culture with the grammar.

The years we will spend at MHS may seem long now,
But when we look back, years from now,
They will seem but a spark,
A brilliant spark, maybe,
But only what we make it.
It is before us now,
We must work and strive to reach our goals.

Oh, dark and ignorance,
You forever surround me!
But I stand not alone,
Others around me
Must also stand against you.

Through genuine accomplishment the 1958-59 STUDENT COUNCIL gained the respect of MHS students and teachers alike. Every student was encouraged to participate in the activities of the school's government. The president Dave Dews, his vice-president John Cowne, the secretary Carol Lukei, and the straight "A" treasurer Guenter Hennig, led the Council through a very successful year. At the beginning of the year the president initiated many new ideas. Outstanding among these was the appointment of six standing committees which spared the assembly itself of much time - consuming research and debate. This innovation, the installing of an intercom system into each classroom — a very difficult and detailed project — and many other student benefits have established records which future Munich High Councils may set as goals for a hard year's work.

The DORMITORY COUNCIL, a composite of members of both the boys' and the girls' dormitories, was responsible for a variety of activities and events during the school year. All the activities — dances, parties, and talent shows — were planned with the leadership of the two dorm presidents, Tom Winn and Tuula Keravuori. One of the outstanding projects of the Council was the organization and maintenance of a Slop Shop, a worth while project if ever there was one for the always hungry dorm students. On the whole, the dorms had a very successful and fun-filled year.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The object of the NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to encourage high standards of character.

Our NHS leaders — President Charles Massey, Vice-president Tuula Keravuori, Secretary Carol Lukei, and Treasurer Dawn Hardy — have upheld these principles and have encouraged others to follow in their steps.

Eagerness becomes pure enjoyment as Dawn hands out the seldom-received ice cream.

This year the NHS undertook many community-service projects — the supplying of books to the Waldweise TB Home library, a project began and continued by NHS for five years; the donation of towels, washcloths, toothbrushes and toothpaste, soap, and Kleenex to a German orphanage; and the presentation of the annual Christmas pageant. All proved successful.

Newly inducted members listen intently during the ceremony which will make them a part of the national organization.

Always lots of technical work for Dawn.

Starting off with a wild rush of enthusiasm, we, the ANNUAL STAFF, early in the year, buckled down to the hard work that lay ahead. Mr. Pope and Mr. South, the staff and art advisers respectively, enlightened our ignorant souls concerning the "in's" and "out's" of yearbook work. Together with the Editor-in-Chief Charles Pflugrath, the section editors — Art Editor Gordon Stewart, Photo Editor Bill Taylor, Copy Editor Mary Schmidt, Activities Editor Dave Dews, and Business Manager Dawn Hardy — worked willingly and efficiently. Special thanks are due to the anonymous helpers of the staff who were so ready to assist in the countless small chores that make any publication venture difficult.

As the last page of the 1959 ERINNERUNGEN goes to the printer, we, the staff, hope the annual measures up to the efforts to make it a record of your year here at Munich High, for we have endeavored to do just that.

Inspiration comes in spurts for the Feature Editor.

Providing the student body with interesting, educational, and entertaining reading and at the same time giving the newspaper staff a chance to develop writing techniques which will help them in professional work, the MUSTANG MESSENGER was MHS's "Pulitzer Prize" winner.

DRAMA ACTIVITIES

Mr. Carlini
Director

One of the most outstanding events of the year was Liliom, the senior class play. Proving to have exceptional talent as actors were Eddie Bell — playing the lead role of Liliom, a happy-go-lucky barker at a carousel — and his leading lady, Carol Lukei - portraying Julie, a young girl who falls in love with and marries Liliom. The entire cast is congratulated on their success.

Contributing to the welfare of Americans and Germans alike, Munich's AMERICAN JUNIOR RED CROSS maintained a record request program for the Munich American Hospital and set up a drive for each homeroom to sponsor a German orphan. Their projects were led by hard working officers — Roger Norum, Sammy Raymond, and Mary Lou Hughes.

"Where can I find a book about botany?" or "How do I find a book if I don't know its title and author?" were typical questions answered by the LIBRARY ASSISTANTS in their daily work this year. There were, however, many serious hours of research and debate spent in the library, and the assistants developed the more serious sides of their personalties.

CHORUS

The many members of the 1958-59 MAHS CHORUS will probably remember for a long time to come the fine moments of musical accomplishment they experienced this year. Under the experienced direction of Miss Marie Comeaux the well rounded chorus was divided into many ensembles, all extremely good. After having heard them sing, anyone could truthfully say that they are the very best.

Spirited and lively — these words describe the MUNICH HIGH SCHOOL BAND. By playing traditional MHS victory and pep songs and rhythmic marshall airs, the band, under the able direction of Herr Paul Engler, created a collegiate atmosphere at all of our football and basketball games. The members of the band practiced for long hours each week in order to be in tip-top shape not only for our games, but also for pep rallies and assemblies. The success of the band was reflected by the tremendous enthusiasm with which it was received by the students.

As school draws to a close, it's fun to reminisce some of the memorable events in which we all participated during the year. Remember the class plays, Liliom and The Straw Hat; the pep rallies, games, and all the spirit with which we boosted the Mustangs to many victories; the wonderful dances sponsored by the classes and school organizations — the Christmas Prom, the Cupid Capers Ball, the Saint Paddie's Day Dance, the sock hops, and the best of them all, the Junior-Senior Prom. The clubs sure were great this year, and remember the beautiful Christmas Pageant presented by the National Honor Society and the Choir. There is so much more that we will cherish always, reminders of the wonderful times we had as we advanced in age and wisdom this year at MHS.

"Though at times the chances of winning look dark, stick together. Use, don't lose, your spirit and a win will spark."

These words, the motto of our Letterman's Club, express this year's attitude of the Munich High School student body.

By utilizing good sportsmanship and teamwork, we played not only for victory, but also for the enjoyment of competing.

The undying spirit of the student body, inspired our Mustangs on to many a victory in football, basketball, track, soccer, tennis, and golf.

Remember the pep rallies and all the fun we had at them? I don't think that any of us will ever forget the Homecoming Rally, in which, Mr. Gleason, Miss Shultz, Mr. Alt, Miss Thompson, and Mr. Vahovich impersonated the Stuttgart Cheerleaders. Although the "Profs" weren't in best form, no one can say that their cheers weren't effective and original.

Equally memorable, of course, was the Homecoming Game. Our mighty Mustangs upheld MHS's eight-year homecoming victory tradition by defeating the Stallions 6—0.

This year's basketball season also instilled many memories of fun and excitement. Remember the thrills as we watched Munich sink the ball time after time in those close scoring games.

Yes, the winner's motto really stuck with Munich High School this year in everything we did.

CHEERLEADERS

Team and school spirit make a victory anytime, anywhere, and under the leadership of our CHEERLEADING SQUAD, we scored many a win. These peppy, always-smiling, never-tiring girls worked hard to keep MHS spirit at its fullest. All their work was repaid in excess by this year's high spirited student body. Along with the PEP CLUB and the MHS boosters the Cheerleaders helped our Lettermen to many hard fought victories in football, basketball, and track.

GIRLS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Two outstanding aims of Munich High School's GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION are to increase feminine interest in sports and to create an understanding of many types of physical recreation. Every member this year displayed an enthusiastic attitude which sped up learning and increased the members' enjoyment. The successful playdays, which everyone enjoyed, gave the girls' year a grand finale.

FOOTBALL

The Munich High School grid-iron squad kept alive an important school tradition again this year by winning the seventh Homecoming Game in as many years. The victory over Stuttgart avenged the humiliating 51 point loss received by the Mustangs in the first meeting of the two teams earlier in the season. The spirited but young and inexperienced Mustangs didn't fare too well in League play this season but will be a major contender for the League Crown next year. Only three of the starting eleven — Dave Dews, Tom Winn, and All-USAREUR Peyton Galloway — are graduates.

Munich's Victory Homecoming Dance was enjoyed by all Mustangs and their dates. Mary Schmidt, queen of the football finale, and her two attendants Vicki Gibbons and Sherry Tiller were crowned during half-time of the game by team captain Peyton Galloway. The queen and her court reigned in grandeur at the dance. Everyone welcomed the cutting of the victory cake by the royalty and their escorts, and no one seemed too tired to eat.

SOCIAL LIFE

According to MHS's studentbody, our social season was a big success this year. Dancing 'til dawn, students and teachers alike enjoy the breaks from school routine. Those who reigned over the various events will never forget the excitement of the crowning and the thrill of following the Munich High tradition of a Royalty Dance. Dances were great, but plays and parties were not outdone. The upper-classmen presented two plays, Lilliom and The Italian Straw Hat, which we can all easily remember because of the excellent acting, colorful costumes, dramatic excitement, and comedy.

Jack keeps with the beat.

The stars enjoy their party.

Cris made the first cut in the Christmas Prom cake.

Hey, don't let go.

Hungry escorts line up for their pieces of Homecoming cake.

Whee, this is fun.

We all rocked that night.

Vickie approves the cutting of the Homecoming cake by Mary.

"Beauty and the Beast"

Stepping out in high style, many MHS students attended the Christmas Formal sponsored by the Student Council. Amid holly, mistletoe, and "Silver Bells" Cris King and Tom Winn were crowned Queen and King of the festive occasion. The Prince and Princess, Tom Milburn and Carol Lukei, joined the King and Queen in the Royalty dance. David Dews, president of the Student Council and the Master-of-Ceremonies, added a light touch to the very exquisite crowning ceremony. Congratulations to the Student Council for making possible such a delightful evening.

Good music made for an evening of good dancing.

Long live King Tom and Queen Cris

the members of the faculty who pass to us, the citizens of the future, knowledge gained in the past. Generously they have shared with us their own experiences and together we have gained a greater understanding of our surrounding world, its peoples, and cultures. Our teachers have woven into our high school "structure" a foundation of wisdom and fair play not found in textbooks alone.

They have pointed the way to the many treasures yet in store — it is up to us, the students, to meet the challenge.

CLASS OF 1959

We'll Ne'er Forget . . . .

our senior year at Nürnberg, our last year in high school.

We were represented in Student Council by Howard Tupper, Jim Clapper, Liz Bingemer, and Margaret Weston.

We had many money-making projects, our financial goal being our senior trip. One of our projects was the Slave Sale, where some of us became "Slaves for a Day". Other activities were the sales of beanies, pennants, yearbook covers, and stationery. In the spring we gave the senior class play.

We especially enjoyed the Junior-Senior Prom which was given for us by the juniors.

We would like to thank the faculty and, in particular, Mr. Frye and Mr. Rosin for their assistance in making this year at Nürnberg our best in high school.

CLASS OF 1960

We'll Ne'er Forget . . . .

our junior year at Nürnberg. Elected class officers were Loch Johnson, president; Bill Ryan, vice-president; Tom Crawford, treasurer; and Jane McKenna, secretary. We'll ne'er forget all the fun and hard work that went into making money and planning for our big project, the Junior-Senior Prom. Toward this end we held the Sadie Hawkins Dance, sold refreshments at the football games, programs at the basketball games, mums at homecoming and cookies during semester exams. Juniors have been active in many school activities such as Student Council, athletics, and clubs.

We, the Class of 1960, stand on the threshold of inheriting the ideals and traditions of the senior class. We will try to uphold these traditions and ideals in the coming year as seniors.

LOCH JOHNSON, President; WILLIAM RYAN, Vice-president; TOM CRAWFORD, Treasurer; JANE MC KENNA, Secretary

CLASS OF 1961

We'll Ne'er Forget . . .

this was our sophomore year — the year in which we strengthened our foundation of life. This was the second step in reaching our goal of becoming upper classmen.

In October we held our first class meeting and elected officers for the school term. We also had an adequate representation in each athletic event.

In the spring we turned our attention to the annual sophomore dance. This year we called it the Heart Hop and held it in February. It was a big success.

Everyone worked toward the goal of making this, the Class of '61, the best sophomore class that Nürnberg American High School has ever had.

No, We'll Ne'er Forget Our Sophomore Year.

RICHARD HORNE, President; BARBARA LONGSWORTH, Vice-president; SANDRA MADDOX, Secretary; PHYLLIS POTENZA, Treasurer

CLASS OF 1962

We, the Class of '62, will never forget our year as freshmen at Nürnberg High. One of the many amazing facts about us is that we are the largest class in the history of the school. Being high schoolers for the first time has been a great experience; but we must confess there were times when we were more thrilled by football heroes, basketball games, track stars, and gala Wednesday-night dances than by the atmosphere of serious study. However, time was devoted to study, for many of us have started scholastic records of which we can be proud.

We have taken the usual kidding that the baby-faced freshmen always get — but remember, it was our clear, youthful voices that kept a high "C" ringing to the rafters of the Opera House.

Although some of us will not be here next year, we who shall be intend to carry on, remembering the happy freshman days we shared at Nurnberg.

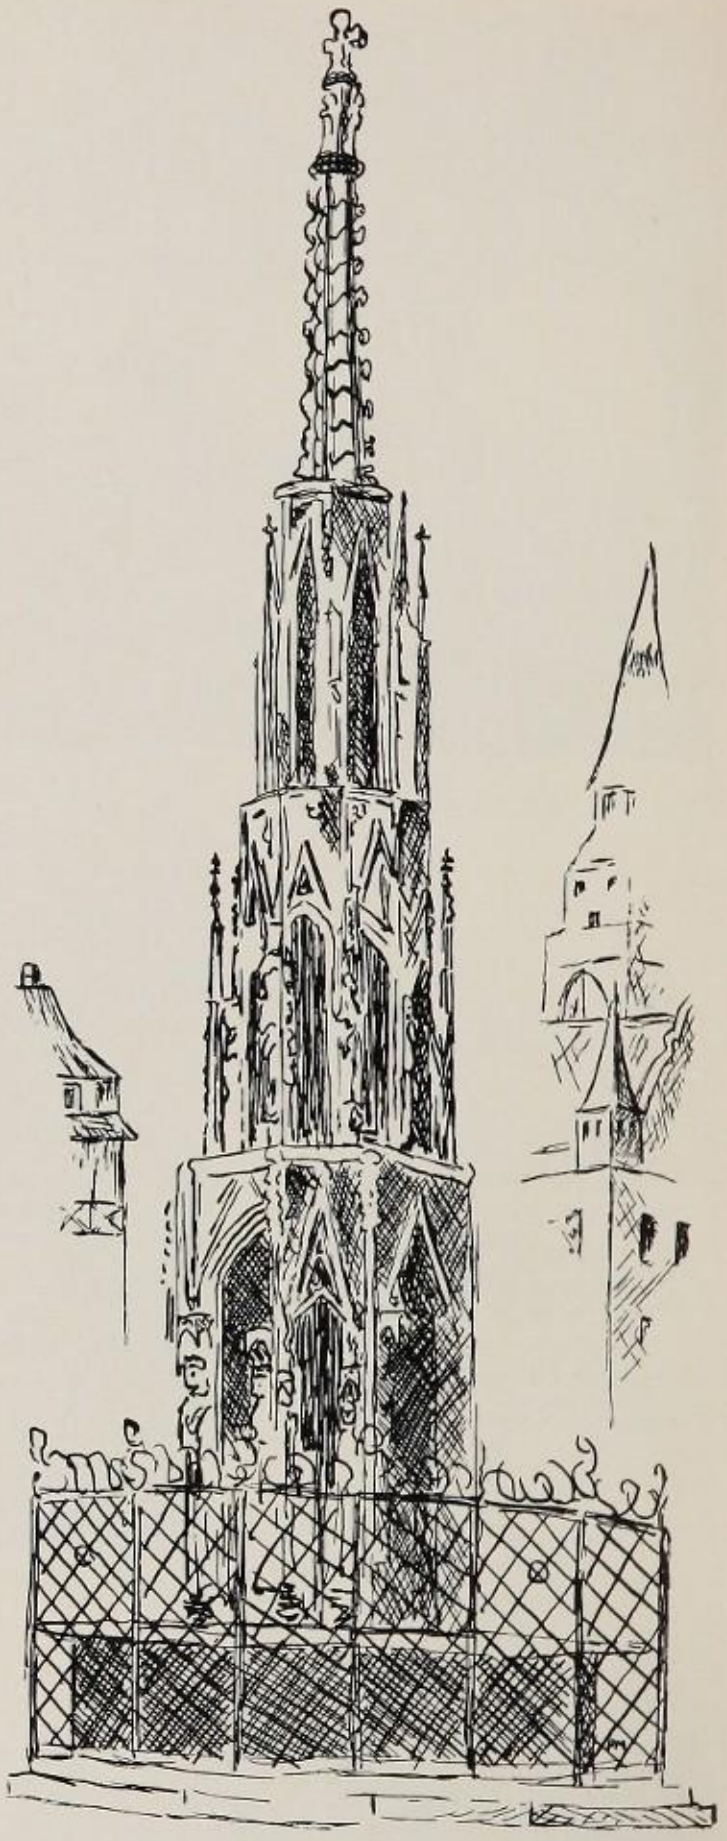
ACTIVITIES

Everywhere I see around me rise the wondrous world of Art:
Fountains wrought with richest sculpture standing in the common mart;



STUDENT COUNCIL

We'll Ne'er Forget . . . .
the Student Council of Nürnberg High School which once again this year worked hard and accomplished a great deal. Early in the year the Student Council innovated a new project — that of an activity calendar to co-ordinate and schedule the various activities occurring during the year. It sponsored the Kick-Off Dance and an assembly commemorating Veterans Day. Delegates were sent to the USAREUR Student Council conference, and the biggest Student Council project of the year, the carnival, was held in March. But the most important work of the Student Council was its function as a group devoted to service, whether big or small, to the school — a job it carried out well.

Under the fine instruction of Coach C. Campbell and Assistant Coach Herbert L. Johnson, the Nürnberg Eagles had their first winning season in several years. Sparked by USAREUR CLASS AA ALL STAR Quarterback, Robert Kulp, and team captain, Nick Biernacki, the Nürnberg Eagles fought to a second place position.

The Nürnberg Eagles opened the USAREUR Class AA Conference with a 12-0 victory over the Heidelberg Lions. Halfback Robert Kulp had a hand in both Nürnberg touchdowns, scoring once on a 50-yard jaunt and passing 30 yards to end Bill Ryan on the other.

The Eagles forward wall was superlative throughout. Tackle Eddie Edwards and center Tom Crawford were outstanding. The Lions were unable to penetrate within the Nürnberg 30 the entire afternoon.

The Nürnberg Eagles racked up their second victory at Augsburg as they stomped the Augsburg Apaches, 32-9.

Speedster Loch Johnson scored twice for the Eagles; once from the 15 in the second quarter and then on a 70-yard kickoff return to open the third quarter.

Quarterback Robert Kulp and halfback Nick Biernacki scored once each for the Eagles in the first half. Hard-running Ted Tunnel scored from 19 yards out in the final quarter.

Jim Ryan, Eddie Edwards, and Tom Crawford were the outstanding linemen for the Eagles. Augsburg's Bob Ward played fine ball for the Apaches.

Nürnberg's Eagles suffered their first loss of the season at the hands of the Würzburg Wolves. Würzburg scored quickly, with five minutes gone in the first period; but for the remainder of the half, the game was a hard-fought defensive battle. NHS threatened several times in the second period but failed to score. The score at the half was 6-0 in favor of Würzburg. Nürnberg's big breaks came in the fourth quarter, with about 7 minutes left to play. After halting a fourth down reverse on Würzburg's 30, Nürnberg took over. Loch Johnson carried to the three. Captain Nick Biernacki scored on a plunge. Biernacki also added the extra point. Würzburg took the ensuing kickoff and proceeded to score the winning touchdown. Outstanding on defense for NHS were Eddie Edwards and Rocky Kulp. The game was a double loss for NHS because of an injury to our fullback, Jimmy DeLay, in the first quarter.

Coach Campbell's Eagles lost a real heartbreaker in their second tilt of the season. The Stuttgart Stallions, led by forward Pete McCoy, just couldn't miss in the closing quarter and eked out a 48-47 victory over the highly-rated Eagles. Nürnberg led 24-15 at the half.

Mike Leonard and Pete Walters both hit 14 points for Nürnberg.

RESIDENCE HALL

"I'm going home!"

Commercial artist — dormitory style!

"Did he bring you anything, Miss Elkin?"

Cheeeze!

No gentlemen around?

We'll ne'er forget this year in the Nürnberg residence hall. Most of us were new in the dorm, but we soon became used to the ringing bells, the sign-in sheets, and the "restrictions".

Our first function as a group was to elect the dorm council. Elected to the council were Jim Smith, Catherine McIntyre, Pete Walters, Ora Holston, Joe Vanoni, Paul Gorski, Roslyn Fisher, Delores Komar, Sandra Dornfeld, and Lee Ray. Soon after the council members took office, they planned the Halloween party. On this they did an excellent job, as they also did on the Christmas party.

And just ask the downstairs girls about that "pajama party" the upstairs girls gave them!
It was a great year!

Looking for the Exeter book, Mr. Rosin?

Boy, that bus better be there!

Step right up and win a cake.

WE'LL NE'ER FORGET all our wonderful times at Nürnberg High School, and the staff of the 1959 yearbook hopes that in the years to come these pages will bring our memories vividly to life . . . the victory flag flying . . . the Wednesday-night dances . . . basketball season . . . vacations!!! . . . those bus rides . . . the dorm . . . the old walled city . . . the prom . . . and, finally, graduation.

WE'LL NE'ER FORGET our friends and classmates who lived these memories with us, the faculty who taught and guided us, and the athletic and social events, all of which made up an enjoyable part of our high school careers.

No, WE'LL NE'ER FORGET 1958-1959 at Nürnberg American High School.

"Hail to thee, our Alma Mater . . ."

NÜRNBERG

Longfellow

In the valley of the Pegnitz, where across broad meadow-lands
Rise the blue Franconian mountains, Nürnberg, the ancient, stands.

Quaint old town of toil and traffic, quaint old town of art and song,
Memories haunt thy pointed gables, like the rocks that round them throng.

Memories of the Middle Ages, when the emperors, rough and bold,
Had their dwellings in thy castle, time-defying, centuries old;

And thy brave and thrifty burghers boasted, in their uncouth rhyme,
That their great imperial city stretched its hand through every clime.

In the court-yard of the castle, bound with many an iron band,
Stands the mighty linden planted by Queen Cunigunde's hand;

On the square the oriel window, where in old heroic days
Sat the poet Melchior singing Kaiser Maximilian's praise.

Everywhere I see around me rise the wondrous world of Art:
Fountains wrought with richest sculpture standing in the common mart;

And above cathedral doorways saints and bishops carved in stone,
By a former age commissioned as apostles to our own.

In the church of sainted Sebald sleeps enshrined his holy dust,
And in bronze the Twelve Apostles guard from age to age their trust;

In the church of sainted Lawrence stands a pix of sculpture rare,
Like the foamy sheaf of fountains, rising through the painted air.

Here, when Art was still religion, with a simple reverent heart,
Lived and labored Albrecht Durer, the Evangelist of Art;

Hence in silence and in sorrow, toiling still with busy hand,
Like an emigrant he wandered, seeking for the Better Land.

Emigravit is the inscription of the tombstone where he lies;
Dead he is not, but departed, for the artist never dies.

Fairer seems the ancient city, and the sunshine seems more fair,
That he once has trod its pavement, that he once has breathed its air!

Through these streets so broad and stately, these obscure and dismal lanes,
Walked of yore the Mastersingers, chanting rude poetic strains.

From remote and sunless suburbs came they to the friendly guild,
Building nests in Fame's great temple, as in spouts swallows build.

As the weaver plied the shuttle, wove he too the mystic rhyme,
And the smith his iron measures hammered to the anvil's chime;

Thanking God, whose boundless wisdom makes the flowers of poesy bloom
In the forge's dust and cinders, in the tissues of the loom.

Here Hans Sachs, the cobbler-poet, laureate of the gentle craft,
Wisest of the Twelve Masters, in huge folios sang and laughed.

But his house is now an ale-house, with a nicely sanded floor,
And a garland in the window, and his face above the door;

Painted by some humble artist, as in Adam Puschman's song,
As the old man gray and dove-like, with his great beard white and long.

And at night the swart mechanic comes to drown his cark and care,
Quaffing ale from pewter tankards, in the master's antique chair.

Vanished is the ancient splendor, and before my dreamy eye
Wave these mingled shapes and figures, like a faded tapestry.

Not thy Councils, not thy Kaisers, win for thee the world's regard;
But thy painter, Albrecht Durer, and Hans Sachs, thy cobbler bard.

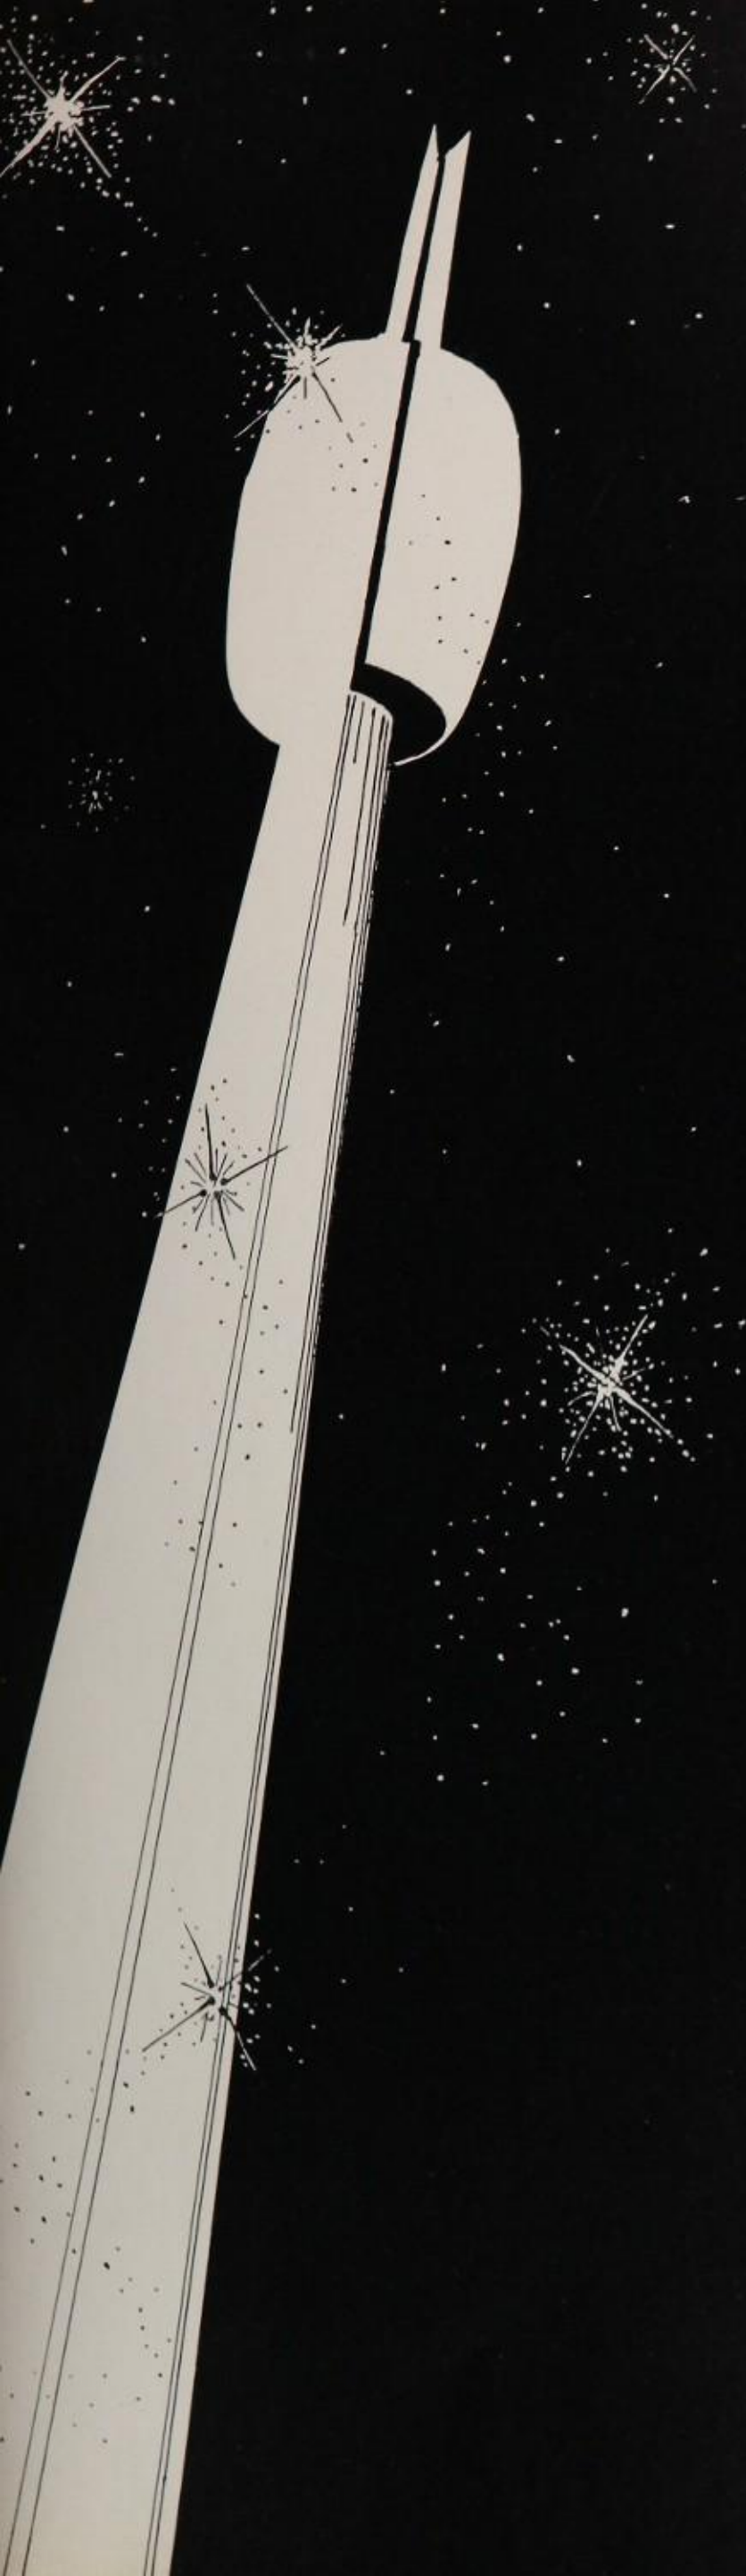
Thus, O Nürnberg, a wanderer from a region far away,
As he paced thy street and court-yards, sang in thought his careless lay:

Gathering from the pavement's crevice, as a flowerlet of the soil,
The nobility of labor, — the long pedigree of toil.

this is . . .

STUTTGART

Stadt Stuttgart, Verkehrsförderungsamt, Bildarchiv, Foto Windstosser



"Earth has not anything to show more fair:
Dull would he be of soul who could pass by
A sight so touching in its majesty:
This city now doth, like a garment, wear
The beauty of the morning; silent bare,
Ships, towers, domes, theaters, and temples lie
Open unto the fields, and to the sky;
All bright and glittering in the smokeless air.
Never did sun more beautifully steep
In his first splendor, valley, rock, or hill;
Ne'er saw I, never felt, a calm so deep!
The river glideth at his own sweet will:
Dear God! the very houses seem asleep;
And all that mighty heart is lying still!"

Wordsworth

STUTTGART

Concrete, steel, and glass — well on to two hundred yards of it flung in long, low precision — almost starkly. But definitely not cold, or hard, or unfriendly. Pass by on almost any Deutschland wintry day and feel the warm glow of its many gleaming eyes; or catch it when the days stretch out with the sun — then those straight lines dissolve in the green ribbon before its facade to spell an unmistakable welcome.

Enter the central doors and follow the upward sweeping curve of the stairs; mingle with the 625 well-dressed students, chat with any of the 32 well-qualified faculty members. It will not be long before you feel the spirit existing between student and student, student and teacher, and teacher and teacher, or the pulse-beat of good relations directed toward maximum individual growth and pursuit of truth.

A philosophy of respect and concern for individual welfare and growth has been born and matured since its beginning — until now after a few short years it has become a tradition.

It has been said that "The measure of a man is the breadth of his ambitions, the depth of his convictions and the height of his ideals." To this Stuttgart, in some indefinable way, adds the spirit that brings realization for success.

And that is SHS.

As we Seniors walk in the sunset of our high school life, we carry with us the varied memories of the fellow students, teachers, and activities which we can never forget.

Now that we are Alumni of Stuttgart High School we have the opportunity not only to look over our Senior year, but also to glance back over our years as underclassmen. How lost we felt as we entered high school as freshmen, and how sophisticated we acted when we began as knowing sophomores. The junior year brought us nearer to our goal and served as an apprenticeship for the varied activities of that most important year of all. Finally the long-awaited day arrived when we slipped up to take the places of the graduates and were worldly Seniors at last!

At the beginning of the year we met both new and old faces. We organized ourselves by electing class officers. Jim Hewette was elected President; Ellen Johnson, vice-president; Becky Wright, secretary; and Steve Otto, treasurer.

The various committees, the Senior Trip Committee, Ring Committee, Announcement Committee, and the Privilege Committee became well under-way before Christmas.

Our most successful Homecoming Dance honored our football team. Ellen Johnson reigned as queen. We set a precedent this year at SHS by having floats at Homecoming. Our eggbeater, "Whip the Warriors", won the prize.

The Senior Class was well represented in the athletic field. T. D. Johnson, Bill King, and Jim Hewette were chosen for the All-USAREUR team.

Three of our varsity cheerleaders represent the Senior class; they were Ellen Johnson, captain; Miriam McCauley and Margo Byers.

Our Junior-Senior Prom, "Misty Dreams", represented months of planning and hard work. It ended as the most talked about event of the entire year!

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. Nichols, Senior sponsor, congratulates Ellen Johnson Homecoming Queen.

As we Juniors find ourselves in the twilight of our high school life, we can not only enjoy the rich memories of past experiences but also anticipate the fulfillment of our goal — becoming Seniors.

We started the year with the election of our class officers: Bill Cromley, President; Jean Ohl, Vice President; Ann Spence, Secretary; Jeff Tassani, Treasurer.

Then we got down to our main task: raising money for the Junior-Senior Prom. Two of our major sources of income were the concession stand and the mums for Homecoming.

We were active in school activities with Jean Ohl, Ann Spence, Glynn Hewette and Judy Sperl representing us to the cheerleaders, and Collen Cassidy, Junior Varsity cheerleader. We had a number of boys on the football team. They were: Vic Mote, All-USAREUR, Ted Spelman, Tom Buchman, and Warren Phillips. We also had a number of boys on the basketball team.

Even with all these extra activities, we still did our studying, fought the Civil War, disproved all the chemists, and had the poets rolling in their graves with our renditions of their poems.

Now that we have had our Prom the end is drawing near, and we are looking forward to becoming seniors, but we will always remember our Junior days.

Midnight is a gate,

From the darkness and density of midnight, we Sophomores have emerged as an important element, numbering one hundred and ninety-six.

Early in the year we elected Bruce Jones, President; Ed Hall, Vice-President; Diane Matheny, Secretary; and Bea Prater, Treasurer.

Charla Calmes, Rae Cook, Diane Matheny, Bea Prater, and Francie Sperl were majorettes, and Debbie Chamberlain and Dickie Robinson were junior-varsity cheerleaders. Four of our boys, Charlie Brizius, Tom Johnson, Bruce Jones, and Dave Woodrum played football.

Sophomores participated in nearly every club this year. Many Sophomores were club officers.

We raised money in various ways for our dance and class picnic. Our picnic was a complete success; we all enjoyed it immensely.

Because our Sophomore year was such a success, we're looking forward to our Junior year with much anticipation.

Freshmen

We, the Freshmen, have come a long way since we took our first faltering steps into the dawn of high school life.

Most of us were unsure of ourselves; the memories of threatened initiations were still fresh in our minds. But as weeks passed, we became accustomed to the loud bells, crowded halls, and many classrooms, and we found that since we comprised one of the student body we did have a say in school affairs.

Our first main adventure was the election of class officers: John Redmond,, President; Ricky Driver, Vice-President; Jack Elder, Treasurer; and Sharon Mote, Secretary.

We had three of our girls elected to JV cheerleaders: Darlene Scheu, Carlene Modine, and Brenda Dunlap.

Our two main affairs, the winter dance and the spring dance were very popular, and helped to remind the upperclassmen of our presence.

The student government of Stuttgart High School is the Student Council, an elected representative body.

After the election of the homeroom representatives, a colorful campaign for council officers began. The next step was the establishment of the two standing committees, lunchroom and publicity.

In keeping with tradition, the council members sponsored the Christmas formal which turned out to be a big success. As the year passed, the experience gained by its officers, Will Wilson, Vic Mote, Barbara Newington, Beckie Wright, and its advisor, Mr. John Manspeaker, was reflected in the council's actions and judgement.

Homecoming 1958 . . .

This year Stuttgart's homecoming was highlighted by our victory over Wiesbaden.

The Senior Class sponsored some of the festivities that accompany a homecoming football game including a parade for the queen with an array of colorful floats.

At the homecoming dance that evening, the queen, Ellen Johnson, and her princesses, Ann Spence, Glynn Hewette, Jean Ohl, and Helen O'Donnell, were crowned by co-captain Vic Mote.

Ellen Johnson reigns as Homecoming Queen of 1958 . . .

The freshman, sophomore, and junior class float was a big hit on Homecoming Day.

The Seniors hit the nail on the head with their big mixmaster which pronounced, "Whip the Warriors".

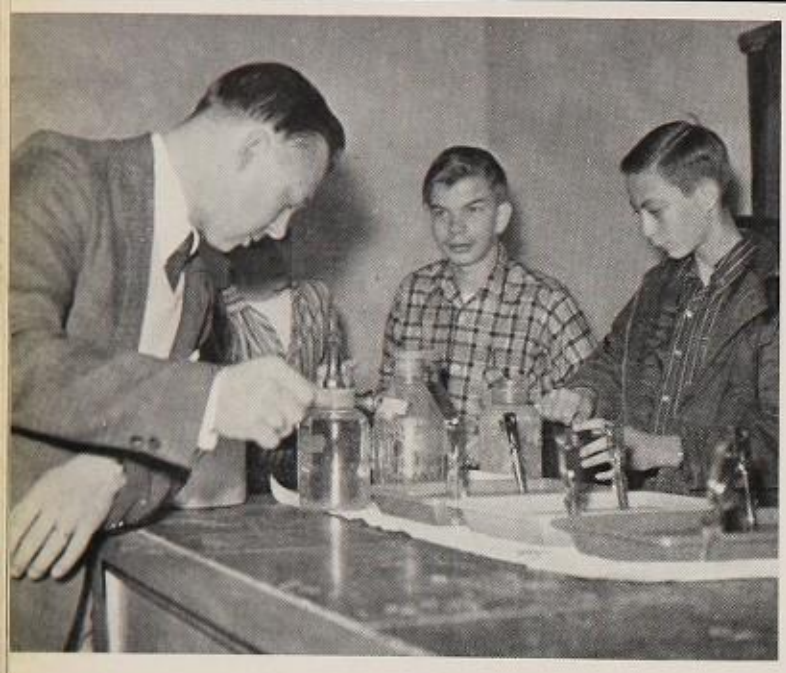
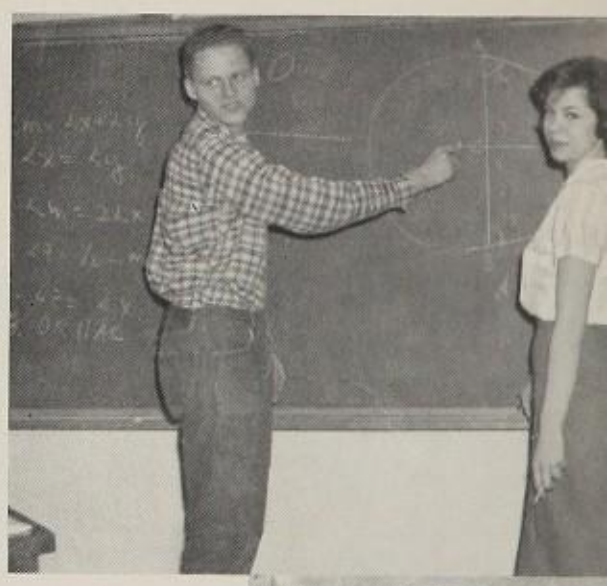
Physics and Math classes



In this the age of Sputniks and rockets, when space travel has become a reality rather than a distant dream much stronger emphasis has been put on the sciences. The physics students of today may form the nucleus of our scientists of tomorrow.



This year the math teachers have conducted their classes with one eye on the current newspapers and the stories of the advances in space travel. They realize that the men working behind the scenes in the laboratories must have a vast clear knowledge of math in order to write the formulas and equations which come before the first rockets blast. Only through superior math training can students become prepared for such jobs.

History and Physical Education Classes

Many history class students are members of the German American Club and discover their club activities a first-hand way to learn contemporary history.

That we might learn from the mistakes of the past is the first lesson of history. History from world history to American history and government to social psychology to international relations gave us pleasure as well as knowledge.

Physical Education is required in every American school. Many sports were offered through the year: football, basketball, track and baseball for the boys; basketball, volleyball, and softball for the girls.

This year for the first time at Stuttgart High students in senior classes may elect social psychology as a half year subject. Through this course the students hope to gain a better understanding of themselves and of their fellow-men. Experiments and studies are conducted in classes to give students an insight into the complex workings of the human mind. The increased knowledge gained will prove useful to the students long after graduation.

SHS newspaper, Hoofbeats, is written and published by the creative writing and the newspaper club under the supervision of Mr. Leonard Docherty. Hoofbeats, issued every two weeks, brings news events, personalities, features, statistics and humor to the student body. Much hard and frantic work goes into each Hoofbeat issue.

National Honor Society

On the basis of its aims of outstanding Leadership, Scholarship, Service, and Character, National Honor Society inducted some 20 Seniors and Juniors into membership this year.

Among the activities of this distinguished organization were assemblies and sponsoring a Student-Teacher Day, when selected students filled the positions of faculty and administration.

During a week of German-American student exchange, National Honor Society hosted the German students at SHS and held an informal coke party for them on the last day of the exchange.

Following induction, all Honor Society members and their parents attended a tea in the faculty lounge, which provided a pleasant end to a day to be remembered always for its impressive candle-light ceremony and the thrill of being tapped.

Stuttgart High School played host to the annual USAREUR high school golf tournament this year on October 6. Frankfurt, Paris, Heidelberg, Mannheim, Kaiserslautern, and Wiesbaden were some of the schools represented. Besides playing host to the various teams, Stuttgart once again outplayed them in both the girls' and boys' divisions to cap many of the honors.

Rainer Resch, a senior, finished with a record smashing low of 84. Mel Hall placed second, and Fred Henshaw deadlocked with Jolly Girard for fourth place. Little freshman, Peggy O'Bryan, placed second in the girls' contest.

Pepsters

Some of the Pep Club Members, Lynn Robinson, Jackie Thomas, Bonnie Herzig, Kitty Price, Ruth Joiner, Merily Shaw, Dee Dee O'Meara, Dickie Robinson, Brenda Dunlap, and Debbie Chamberlain raise the school spirit by making posters.

With a swish of gleaming red skirts and letter S's, the cheerleaders were ready to lead the student body in another rousing cheer. They were supported by peppy members of the Pep Club. Strong voices, smiling faces, and boundless energy best describes these girls who make the posters for football and basketball games and provide the nucleus of spirit for the cheering section.

Mote and Johnson make joint decision.

Mote puts the squeeze on Wiesbaden.

Molded around 12 returning lettermen, Coach Jack Larkin's 1958 football team completed a five win, three loss season to take second place in the USAREUR Class "A" League.

The first game of the season saw the Stallions defeat the K'town Raiders, 7-6, for the first time on their home field in the history of KHS. This was due to the outstanding ballhandling of All-USAREUR quarterback Vic Mote.

The Stallions played host to the Frankfurt Eagles for our first home game. Frankfurt went home with a victory by a score of 33-0.

Avenging last year's defeat, a fired-up Stuttgart Stallionball club massacred last year's champion Wiesbaden Warriors by a lopsided score of 39-6. Sparking the Stuttgart attack, halfback Charlie Baker romped for three touchdowns. The other two were scored on a pass to end Tom Johnson and a 56 yard run by halfback Griff Jones.

For the final game of the first round, the Stallions played host to the Munich Mustangs. Munich went home with a 51-0 defeat and the Stallions celebrated the most crushing victory in the 1958 USAREUR Class "A" season. Stuttgart's scoring rampage was lead by unstopable fullback Will Wilson. Halting the Munich drive were All-USAREUR guard T. D. Johnson and All-USAREUR tackle Bill King.

Stuttgart started off well in the second round of play by downing the K'town Raiders, 19-0. Defensive play by tackle Doug May and linebacker Jim Dossey sparked the Stuttgart defense and helped hold the Raiders scoreless; while offensive power was supplied by fullback Will Wilson and halfback Dick Moore.

After a four game winning streak the Stallions met the Frankfurt Eagles at Frankfurt in one of the most decisive contests of the season. After a shakey first half the Stallions settled down and with the able play of All-USAREUR end Jim Hewette and guard Larry Lamm, the Stallions held Frankfurt in the second half, but the damage had been done; when the final whistle blew the score was Frankfurt 19, Stuttgart 6.

The Stallions, snapping back from a heartbreaking defeat, went on to beat Wiesbaden in a very close and hard fought Homecoming Game. Substitute quarterback Charlie Brezius, who replaced injured Vic Mote, did a very able job of leading our team to a 19-13 victory.

The last game of the 1958 season saw the Stallions travel to Munich. A spirited Munich team beat our Stallions by a very close score of 6-0, making the most of a fumble in Stallion territory. Even in defeat center Dave Woodrum, and end Clayton Hurt played outstanding ball.

BASKETBALL SEASON 1958 . . .

Opening the 1958—1959 basketball season, the Stuttgart Stallions, coached by Mr. Victor Keiser, were in high spirits. Although they were disheartened by their defeat in the first game with Munich, 51-55, they quickly retaliated to "edge out" Nürnberg, 48-47. The following week, Nürnberg came to Stuttgart with the previous week's loss still in mind, but went home with another defeat, this time 48-33. With the cry of "Beat Frankfurt" in the halls of SHS, the team gained another victory, 43-38. With the feeling of victory high in their hearts, the Stallions went to Mannheim, and came back with a 57-37 win.
With the season well under way the Stallions held a record of 4-1.

Junior Varsity

The Stuttgart JV had a pretty good season this year behind the coaching of Mr. Paul Bush.

The team started off hot by winning their first two games with Munich by eight points, and with Nürnberg by seven. Then the tables were turned, and they lost a couple of close ones to Nürnberg and to Frankfurt only to come back winning most of their remaining games.

The Stallions JV was largely made up of sophomores; in center Doug Reynolds, forwards Jesse Overall and Dave Woodrum, and guards Ronnie Bonner, Woody Nelson, and Mike Hoover.

The Junior class played its part in forming our squad by contributing the skills of forward Jeff Tassani, and guards Vic Mote and Bill Otto. The Junior Varsity of this season did a real fine job, and we are looking forward to seeing many of them in Varsity lineups next year.

Majorettes and Band

Clad in brand new uniforms this year the Stallion Band marched behind Drum Major Carl Stanley across the football field during half times. Dressed also in striking new uniforms were the capable Stallion Majorettes. Much of the credit for the organization of both of these fine groups goes to Mr. Donald Paul, who patiently worked with them into the waning hours.

Strutting across the football field at half-time the Majorettes created quite a stir.

In short red skirts, white sweaters and boots they made a sight at which to marvel.

Captain Pam Chandler led her girls across the field, twirling batons and creating a swirl of color.

Drum Major Carl Stanley led the marching band at the football games. The Band also gave special performances for various local events and festivities.

The marching majorettes on the football field are composed of these members of the Stallion Majorette club.
